REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

FOR CONGRESSMAN-AT-LARGE:
HON. GALUSHA A. GROW,
of Susquehanna county.

VOTE for Grow for congress and so contribute your part for better times.

A VOTE for Grow for congress is a vote for more prosperous times and the abolition of the soup house.

REMEMBER there is a congressman to be elected on Feb. 20, (next week Tuesday). Every man who wants better times should let nothing prevent his turning out to vote for Grow.

REPUBLICANS should all turn out at the election on the 20th (next Tuesday) and help roll a large majority for Grow for congress. Let the free-trade prosperity smashers see that the people are watching their interest.

A VOTE for Grow for Congressman-at Large is a vote to abolish the soup house and give our working men a chance to earn an honest living, by honest labor. Vote for Galusha A. Grow for congressman-at-large.

Edward Bok's successful article in the January "Cosmopolitan" on 'The Young Man in Business" has been reprinted in a tasteful and handy booklet form at 10 cents by The Curtis Publishing Company, of Philadelphia. To this reprint Mr. Bok has added some 14 pages of editorial matter answering "Three Uncertain Young Men."

It is very important that every republican and every voter that wants to see better times should turn out at the election on Feb. 20 and give a vote to Galusha A. Grow for congressman-at-large. Centre county ought to be carried for Grow. Let us help to roll up a large majority as a rebuke to the free-trade rascals, who have brought the country to the verge of ruin; our poor to the point of starvation, making the soup house the only intstitution of relief.

SOCIALIST LABOR PARTY.

The proposition that organized labor shall associate for united political action has often been made by socialistic agitators but has usually met an adverse response in this country. It is recognized that socialism, when carried to its logical end, sinks both the individual and individual capabilities to a common dead level which the theorists claim will result in supplying everybody with everything they want, but which would certainly inspire no one to do the best he could. The case with which individuals could acquire land or homes of their own and lucrative business opportunities has always tended to discourage the socialistic idea on this side of the Atlantic.

Socialistic agitators have come here from abroad, for socialism, like many other modern isms, is a foreign importation, and the present industrial depression has given them a chance to be heard heretofore denied. The resolution carried through the United Labor League organization of this city on Sunday to send out lecturers to advocate independent political action may be said to be the first success socialism has won in labor circles in Philadelphia. Just what independent political action means in the minds of the Socialist propagandists is somewhat misty, of course, and perhaps no two agitators have the same ideas upon the subject, but the victory of the Socialist agitators on Sunday means that all the labor unions and other labor organizations will be urged to work out the salvation of labor by joining the new labor party.

We predict, however, that plead they ever so eloquently, the Socialist lecturers will make small progress in their efforts to induce the workingmen of this or any other American city to join in a political movement to make everybody alike in social, financial and political condition. Philadelphia at least is a city of individual homes, one of which almost every workingman may hope to own by the practice of the individual traits of industry and economy. Every workingman, native or naturalized, is a citizen with as great possibilities of success open to him and his children as the most of the rich and famous had at the beginning of their careers. The ambition to become owners of individual property and to see their sons and daughters succeed in securing some of the prizes open to all in American life will make the more intelligent workingmen slow to attach themselves to an organization of the kind proposed by the Socialist leaders. The Socialist agitators probably found it much easier to carry their resolution through a Sunday convention, at which the great majority of the workingmen of Philadelphia were not represented, than they will find it to induce the workingmen in any large numbers to join their party.—Times.

BELLEFONTE'S CANDIDATES.

A Brief Biography of the Aspirants for Chief Burgess.

To-day we give to our readers a brief biography of each of the candidates for the office of Burgess of Bellefonte as follows:

W. E. Gray the Republican candidate for burgess of Bellefonte, is 33 years of age. He is a member of the Centre county bar, having been admitted in August, 1886.

W. F. GRAY.

He graduated at the Pennsylvania state college in June 1883, in the general science course, and is now president of the alumni association of that institution. He afterward taught school for two years. He began the study of law in 1884 and afterwards took a course in the Albany law school at Albany, N. Y., from which institution he graduated in May 1886. After his admission to the bar of Centre county, he began to practice law, having his office in this place where he has resided ever since, and has been actively engaged in the practice of his profession, and has succeeded in building for himself a name and place among the rising attorneys at the Centre county bar.

Bellefonte's Democratic nominee for burgess is John N. Lane, a grandnephew of ex-President James Buchanan. He was born in Lancaster, March 10, 1852. His father James B. Lane, was of Scotch and Irish, his mother, Martha Jenkins Lane, of Welsh and Irish descent, the latter being closely connected with Robert Emmet, the great Irish patriot. He was educated at the Yeatts institute, of Lancaster, and Episcopal academy, of Philadelphia. Given his choice in 1868 to go to West Point or Bellefonte, he chose the latter place, and entered the banking house of W. F. Reynolds & Co., now Jackson, Crider & Hastings, and remained with them for 16 years. He has always had a warm feeling for the fire boys, having been instrumental in organizing both companies of this place. He is kind, jovial, generous, and enjoys a wide acquaintanceship, and was the party's unanimous choice for burgess candidate.

JOHN N. LANE.

STATE TAX CASES.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 12.—These opinions were handed down by Judge McPherson to-day in the State Tax cases in favor of the commonwealth:

Savage Fire Brick Company $794.56; William Cramps & Sons, Ship and Engine Building Company, $143.09; Delaware River Iron Ship Building and Engine Works, $41.62.

Judgments for the defendants was entered in the State Tax suits against the I. P. Morris Company (three cases); the court stating that the commonwealth had been overpaid in each case.

The case against Captain George W. Skinner and the Soldiers Orphans Commission was continued until Wednesday afternoon.

TERRIBLE SUFFERING.

DALLAS, Tex., Feb. 13.—The thermometer was twenty two degress above zero this morning. The wind decreased to a moderate pace during the night and the ground was frozen to-day. Passengers from Kansas, Oklahoma and the Cherokee strip and the Indian territory to-day report the most terrible blizzard on record at those points. A great many lives have been lost and the suffering from the cold is intense. The greatest loss has been among those living in the Cherokee strip, who are poorly prepared for the winter in the way of houses and clothing.

WHEN THE HAPPY DAYS COME AGAIN.

When the happy days come again let them be the happier for a grateful remembrance of the work which women have done during these days of sorrow, in every time of trial woman's voice has been heard to console or cheer and her hand has been stretched forth to soothe or sustain. It was so when the roar of battle was heard, but not even then more effectually than now, when instead of the clamor of strife there is the dull silence of despair. Men have done much since that despair began to settle upon thousands, but how much there was which they could not do. Never has men realized so fully as now the fact that in adversity the best work is the work of women. And in what a noble spirit many of them have done it! That is the best of it. Seeing their self-sacrifice, others have borne with the greater patience the sacrifice which fate has demanded of them. It is that which has told on hearts and lifted up hopes. Courage is everything, and it is courage which women have taken to the downcast. When they saw a woman, as often they have—a woman who usually lived quietly in her own small domain, knowing nothing of the great world beyond it, on their threshold, with garments for the little ones, with dainties for the sick, with food for the famishing, more than garments or food was the courage she brought, for her sympathy stirred every element of manliness in them. They were not forgotten, though poor and unfortunate, and it is everything to a man to feel that—everything to him to have proof that they with plenty have come to share with him in his need. Who can do that like a woman? No one, for only a woman has the charm of a woman's presence, the cheer of a woman's voice. In the happy days to come let them be the happier for a grateful remembrance of what women have done during these days of sorrow.

LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY.

Monday was Lincoln's birthday. Illinois, the State from which the great President was elected and which now contains his tomb, has duly honored it by setting aside the date as a general holiday, and it will be observed in many ways there, all tending to inculcate the lesson of patriotism, steadfastness and faith in the destiny of the nation.

There is no reason why Lincoln's memory should not be honored by the nation equally with that of Washington. While the reverse of the earlier leader in personal characteristics, has public service was strikingly similar. It was his duty to lead the nation through a period of struggle and danger fully equal to that which gave it birth, and in steadfastness, patience, purity and singleness of purpose the President of Emancipation was in nowise second to the Commander-in-Chief of Independence. We may not make a holiday of Lincoln's birthday, for our holidays have a habit of going rather wide of their patriotic purpose, but it is well on that day to reflect on the greatness of Lincoln's work and the example of his patriotism.

CHEAP EXCURSION "NITTANY VALLEY DAY."

The Central Railroad of Pennsylvania will on Saturday, Feb. 17th, sell excursion tickets at all regular stations, except Bellefonte, good for one round trip over the entire line at a nominal rate of 25 cents. These tickets will be honored on the regular trains and to accommodate those desiring to make the trip in the middle of the day a special train is to be run from Bellefonte to Mill Hall, leaving the former point at 10.30 A. M. and starting from Mill Hall on the return trip at 12-30 noon. The entire passenger equipment of the Central road will be put into service on that day which will enable the Company to comfortably handle all who may desire to take a trip over the new line. Those who have not yet enjoyed a ride on the C. R. R. of Pa., should not miss this opportunity of taking a short journey on a modern railroad equipped with rolling stock surpassed by few trunk lines and equalled by no short line in the country. That hundreds of our Nittany Valley neighbors will avail themselves of this attractive excursion goes without saying.

General Superintendent Gephart will on Tuesday, February 20th, give the people of Bellefonte similar facilities for inspecting the road; a more extended notice of which will appear in a few days.

One week from Tuesday there will be a Republican cyclone in Pennsylvania, and it does not require a Hicks to make the prediction.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, Feb. 12, 1893.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

The Cleveland tariff bill is to be reported to the Senate this week. It is not to be torn all to pieces by the Finance committee, as many had expected. It is only to be sufficiently amended before being reported to gain the support of those democratic Senators who had announced their intention to vote against it unless their demands were complied with nothing has yet been officially given out concerning these amendments, but it is regarded as certain that they will include a duty on sugar, both raw and refined, and a duty on coal. These concessions to the Senators from Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia and Louisiana, are not to be called protection. The democratic party is opposed to protection, you know. So the claim is to be made by the committee that these duties are levied solely for revenue purposes and with no intention to protect these industries. As a matter of cold, hard fact these proposed amendments are not pleasing to the democrats, except those from the states that will be benefited, and they are only to be made because the bill cannot be passed with even four democratic Senators voting against it, and as an offset the duties on a number of articles principally produced in states that are reliably republican are to be still further reduced. The income tax is to remain in the bill, unless struck out by a vote of the Senate. The republican Senators will probably hold a conference as soon as the bill is reported, in order to determine upon the plan of opposition they will they will follow. The advices they are receiving from their constituents are somewhat contradictory. Some want them to merely put themselves on record as opposing the bill and then to allow it to be passed; others want them to use every legitimate parliamentary method to delay or defeat it.

Colonel E. T. Lee, of Monticello, Ill., Secretary of the Shiloh Battle Field Association, is in Washington for the purpose of presenting to the congressional committees the memorial adopted by the association, asking Congress to purchase the battle field of Shiloh and turn it into a National Memorial Park. The association at a recent meeting held at Indianapolis designated Senators Harris of Tennessee; Sherman, of Ohio and Vilas, of Wisconsin, a committee to take charge of the memorial in the Senate and the following Representatives to perform a like duty in the House: Col. D. B. Henderson, of Iowa; Gen. Joseph Wheeler, of Alabama, and Gen. John C. Black, of Illinois.

Representative Geary-Chinese Geary, he is often called—of California, is a democrat but not a cuckoo, as will be seen by the following language of his: I have as much respect for the president as any one else, but I do not see why Congress should first learn the wishes of the President or consult the wishes of the Executive departments before legislating. Congress is here to pass laws without consulting anybody and I, for one, am growing tired of the constant interference of the executive departments in the work of Congress. Let Congress make its own laws, and if the President does not like them, let him exercise his constitutional prerogative and veto them." That's the most sensible democratic speech of the session.

The charge was made several days ago that Secretary Gresham has had a long letter from President Dole to Minister Willis in his posession more than a week, and that it was withheld from the House for fear that the terrible arraignment of Willis for his double dealing since arriving in Honolulu, which it contains, would have defeated the cuckoo resolution which the house was fairly driven to adopt last week, and the charge has not been denied. It certainly looks as though the administration were determined to sink itself to the bottom of the pit of public infamy in dealing with Hawaii. Mister Dole's letter is said to be something like ten thousand words long and to go into minute particulars concerning the acts of Minister Willis. The administration people are claiming that Senator Morgan has been "placated," and that he will join Senator Butler and Gray in the majority report of the Hawaiian investigation, which will jump on ex-Minister Stevens and let paramount Blount and the administration down easy.

The Silver men are on top in the House, and the passing of Mr. Bland's bill for the coinage of the seigniorage is regarded as an assured fact, although its opponents are still fighting it hard and will continue to do so to the end, by filibustering or by any other method that promises to serve their purpose.

They are talking veto rather strongly, and it is said that some of the democrats who will vote for the billwill do so merely to square themselves with their silver constituents, expecting the bill to be vetoed if it gets through Congress.

—Would it not be a good thing if the Bellefonte Central railroad company would run a special train to State College and return Friday evening?

MR. GROW IS AFTER THEM.

The Republican candidate for congressman-at-large, Hon. Galusha A. Grow, in a speech the other day effectually disposed of the threadbare falsehood of which Democratic orators have grown so fond of harping upon that a Republican congress squandered the "surplus of over $100,000,000 gathered into the treasury by a democratic administration." For a third of a century, as ex-Speaker Grow conclusively showed, no law of any importance has been placed upon the statute books of the nation by the Democratic party. The surplus of $100,000,000 which Cleveland claims to have left in the Federal treasury at the close of his first administration was accumulated by virtue of Republican revenue legislation—legislation which Cleveland is now seeking to overthrow. That surplus was "squandered" largely in reducing the national debt. This record stands out in contrast with the record of the present administration, which within less than a year after it was installed has increased the bonded debt of the republic one half as much as the treasury surplus that existed on March 4, 1889.

THE GROUNDHOG AS A PROPHET.

A fierce blizzard, originating in Texas and traveling in a northeasterly direction, accompanied by a northwesterly gale varying in force from forty to eighty miles an hour, has swept the whole country east of the Rocky Mountains and covered a good part of it with a heavy blanket of snow.

Of course, this means delayed railway trains, blockaded street cars, prostrate telegraph wires, heavy damage to shipping at sea, and to insecure buildings and their appurtenances ashore. The story of suffering and possible loss of life has not yet been told fully, because all the particulars are not known and partly because telegraphic communication has been seriously interrupted. But a gale that blows women across the streets of Chicago, fracturing ribs by collision with fire hydrants and awning posts may be depended on to leave a wide swath of wreck and ruin.

There is a compensatory side to the story of the far-reaching blizzard. The extensive snowfall will prove beneficial to the winter wheat sections of the West, covering as it does the wind swept acres with a protecting sheet that will prevent the young grain from being blown or frozen out by the roots. At least this is what the farmers usually expect from an extensive snowfall at this season.

The first blast of real winter, following as it did so soon after Candlemas Day, will increase the reputation of the groundhog as a weather prophet. If the hibernating little animal possessed a tittle of human vanity he might be expected to come out of his burrow on the next fine day just to enjoy the pleasure of chattering in the choicest groundhog language. "I told you so."

FIFTY-EIGHT ACCUSED.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Feb. 13.—The criminal court room was crowded to its capacity this morning long before the time for the opening of court. The fifty-eight prisoners charged with riot at the mines in the Mansfield valley, were in their seats at 9.30 o'clock, and ten minutes later the first witness to day, Henry Baer of Woodville, took the stand. The evidence at this morning's session was mainly to establish an alibi and prove the good order of several of the accused. To this end a number of the prisoners were called to testify.

—The traffic in valentines today, although not quite as large as last year, was still of fair sized proportions. The lover remembered his sweetheart, the friend his or her friend and the malicious and revengeful did not forget their enemies. Verily, St. Valentine's day is a fair barometer of how a man stands in the community.

WILD WORK OF A STORM.

One Town Is Reported to Have Been Swept Off the Earth.

NEW ORLEANS, La., February 12.—Advices received in this city to-day and to-night indicate that a storm, approaching in violence to a cyclone in many respects, swept over the country of Louisiana and Mississippi last night and this morning and left in its wake many casualties and a vast amount of destruction. Communication with the points most severely affected is interrupted as all the wires are down and only the most meagre reports have so far been received. The most alarming report is from Newtown, which place is said to have been wiped off the face of the earth. This has not been confirmed.

The conductor on the Illinois Central train, which arrived at 6 o'clock confirms the report that Newton had been swept out of existence, but he had no details of the extent of the damage of the number of casualties, which he thinks is large.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., February 12.—A special from Jackson, Miss, says: A terrible cyclone passed between Martinsville and Beauregard last night. A great many houses were swept from their foundations, trees twisted off, fence destroyed, several people killed and a great many seriously injured. The neighbors for miles around have gathered and are caring as best they can for the wants of the distressed.

ROBBED AND SET ON FIRE.

HUNTINGDON, Pa., February 12.—John M. Laird, hardware merchant, was the victim of what he calls a dastardly deed committed by robbers between 5 and 6 o'clock this morning. His store has been burglarized six or seven times within the past few years, but this morning's work was more villianous than that of any previous efforts.

After entering the building the thieves supplied themselves with revolvers, knives etc., and they had begun drilling the safe when they were compelled to cease operations and hurriedly leave the place. It is presumed that while one was working with the safe another was lighting matches for the purpose of finding the location of the powder cans. A quantity of oil was accidentally ignited in this way and instantly a portion of the establishment was in flames. The fire communicated to a shelf containing many boxes of heavy charged cartridges and deafening explosions quickly followed. Many persons were afraid to enter the building for fear of powder explosions and bodily injury and it was some time before the fire was gotten under control. Very little damage was done by fire but nearly every piece of ware in the store was damaged by water. Some of the stolen goods were discovered in the vicinity of the railroad.

SHAKING THEM UP.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—A "shakeup," the first of many yet to come, occurred among the clerks in the Register's office, Treasury Department, to-day. Fourteen clerks were transferred from that office temporarily to the Sixth Auditor's office, the card system in vogue in the Register's office having been abolished. The work of re-organizing the Register's office is now in progress. Reforms will follow in other offices and a plan mapped out by Secretary Carlisle contemplates the savings of from $350,000 to $400,000 a year in the Treasury Department, when all the bureaus and divisions are trimmed down to a bed rock basis, and what is regarded as "dead timber" has been eliminated from the treasury roll.

FIRST DEGREE.

MIFFLINTOWN, Pa., Feb. 12.—The jury in the Carpenter case reached a verdict at 5 o'clock this evening of guilty of murder in the first degree. The evidence during the last two days of the trial was so overwhelming that at its conclusion, counsel for the defense elected not to address the jury. A motion for judgment was made by the commonwealth, pending the disposal of which a motion or non-trial was made by the defense, based on alleged irregularity in filling the jury wheel in December and on exceptions to portions of Judge Lyons' charge to the jury. This motion will be argued before the judge in chambers on March 9.

CAUSED A COMMOTION.

GALLITZIN, Pa., February 12.—Quite a commotion was created this evening by a so-called special detective arresting Mr H. Orth, of this place, on his return from Altoona, on accommodation, where he had gone after the closing of his store by Sheriff Shoemaker on Saturday. The detective was accompanied by one of the firm of Love, Sunshine & Co., and a newspaper man of Johnstown. Mr. Orth was taken before 'Squire Stephens, where he entered $500 bail for appearance at court for obtaining goods on false pretence to the above named firm. The supposition is that the new firm partner from Ebensburg has the bulge.

A TRIP TO FLORAL PARK.

What a Centre County Young Lady Saw on a Great Seed Farm.

The following letter was written us by a young lady correspondent who recently paid a visit to that famous place in New York state:

DEAR EDITOR: I think your readers will enjoy hearing of my trip to Floral Park, N. Y., a few weeks ago. I wished to see the entire establishment, so secured a letter of introduction to Mr. Childs, the owner. The railroad runs directly through the grounds, with the depot near the centre of the Park, though the main grounds extend for a long distance in all directions and contain over 200 acres. My kind host supplied me with a guide who took me through the building and over the grounds and described the business to me and the methods of working. He also supplied me with all the following information: We first visited the principal seedstore, erected in 1890. It is built of brick and iron and considered fire proof. It is the finest in America. It has four stories and a basement. It is not possible to tell all I saw, except that they have every convenience, and ample force for filling all orders promptly. They have several other large buildings used for storage and special work. I did not have time to visit all. Their business is the largest in the world. They have customers all over the world, and in many of the foreign countries they have agents who are helping to introduce their goods. In the busy season they receive from 7,000 to 10,000 letters, and send out several tons of mail per day. They are employing over 200 people and sometimes work the establishment day and night. One building I visited was an immense brick bulb house containing 16,000 square feet of floor space, and filled annually with Gladiolias and bulbs. The greenhouses are especially beautiful at this time of year. They are in four blocks, from 100 to 200 feet in length, and 12 to 20 feet wide. (My guide supplied me with all the figures which I use.) Some are heated by steam boilers and others by high presure hot water. These buildings are for increasing and developing plants and growing them to a proper condition for sale.

The 200 acres which surround Floral Park are used only as trial grounds, and are not a tenth part of the acreage required to produce the crops. Every variety is thoroughly tested and tried before being sent out. It is the largest experiment station in the world. The Spring catalogue is the largest ever issued. I am one of his regular customers, so I always receive the catalogues, and I can safely say, this is the finest I ever saw. The first edition sent direct to old customers exceeds 500,000, and they think later editions will swell the number to 600,000. The total cost will aggregate $126,000. When ready for mailing, they would require about 20 of of Uncle Sam's largest mail cars. This catalogue was copyrighted as a whole, and each cut separately. Owing to petty larceny by seedsmen and florists, they were compelled to have this done. They have engaged a noted law firm to look after their interests, and prosecute all infringements.

All this was very interesting information as I had not the least idea how they carried on their business. They publish a paper called the "Mayflower." It is the leading Horticultural Journal of the world. They have a large building for the printing of this paper which is as interesting to go over as the Puck Building at the World's Fair; 300,000 copies are published each month. It is interesting to watch the printing of the colored plates, of which two or three accompany each number. John Lewis Childs has registered as his trade mark the ancient coat of arms of the Childs family adopted near the year 700. It has the motto "Imitare quam invidere"—(Imitate rather than envy). They have this mark in the catalogue to all varieties introduced by them, and one may feel sure it marks a variety of great merit I was sorry it was not summer, as I would have enjoyed a drive through the Park, which is laid out with great care. It has shady drives and walks, 'mid fountains and the beautiful flowers of summer bloom. Perhaps I can go again in the summer and tell you of the beauty of Floral Park at that season of the year.

SUGGESTIONS IN MANICURING.

No woman who confines her manicuring to a hasty use of a nail-brush and an occasional filing will every have pretty nails. But she who takes a half-hour once a week and ten minutes a day to the operation may have beautiful ones. First, the hands must be soaked in warm water and when the skin about the nails is soft and pliable it should be pushed back and the little rough ends of cuticle smoothly cut off. The nails should be cleaned with soft orange-wood sticks, then they should be cut, shaped and filed smooth. A vigorous polishing simply with the chamois polisher and without any powders or urgents will leave them in a delightful condition.

BOYCOTT THE COMIC VALENTINE.

St. Valentine's Day comes on apace, and with it comes the multitudinous aggregation of gaudily colored "comics," which please the eye of the coarse and ignorant, and disgust the more refined and cultured. These low caricatures of human frailties are becoming too numerous in a civilized community, and the sending of them is more suggestive of a debased intellect than anything else. To be sure the gentle love missive that is ensconced in the more refined valentines is a pretty conceit, and does no harm, but as long as these harmless epistles have to be associated with the less beautiful and glaring pictures that adorn the "comics," we think it would be just as well for the average valentine sender to cease his vocation until the producers were forced to eliminate the objectionable production from the market.

WE WERE MISTAKEN.

One of the most ludicrous errors that has found its way into the DAILY NEWS was made on Friday in the notice of Mrs. F. W. Crider's dinner party, in which we stated that it was "strictly a ladies' party." In looking over the list of guests present we are compelled to admit that all present were not ladies. But it only proves the greater truth of the concluding sentence of our article in which we mentioned that "the galaxy of ladies there gathered must have rivaled even the most brilliant gathering of ancient statesmen," as our information was gleaned direct from a lady friend who was one of the guests and, although she mentioned the ladies present she failed to mention one gentleman's name. So that the only conclusion we can come to is that the gentlemen, all being husbands, were simply regarded as figure heads, and the brilliancy of the ladies so eclipsed the "small" talk of the gentlemen that their presence around the festive board was in reality not noticed. It is a stern reality, by this time well known, that alongside of a Bellefonte lady the most eminent gentleman is a mere pigmy. However, there is one thing that can be said in the gentlemen's favor and that is they enjoyed Mrs. Crider's dinner probably more than the fairer sex; in this respect they must not be overlooked.

RAIDED A BEAR'S HOME.

George Reed, of Boalsburg, was hunting in the mountains Thursday, when he was attracted by the outcry of his dogs in the vicinity of Shingleton Gap, a narrow, deep and dark ravine between the first and second mountains of the Tussey Range. Reed thought the dogs had tackled a porcupine he had formerly located in the ravine, and he hastened to the scene to keep the dogs out of trouble. He found them circling a huge fallen tree, wild with excitement, but apparently conservative about coming to close quarters with the game. This confirmed his idea that they had cornered the porcupine, and he ran in to collar the leader before he should make a charge and get the worst of it.

As he came up the dog closed in, encouraged by the reinforcement, and Reed found himself within two yards of a big she bear. She was belligerent, and Reed shot her on her first rush at close range. She tried to get back to cover, but died in the attempt. Her effort to return to the fallen tree suggested cubs, and when Reed rattled the cover three little ones tumbled out and tried to run away. He caught them all, and has them at his house where he will make pets of them.

A YOUNG GIANT.

A special from State College on Thursday says: B. F. Fisher, Jr., '96, to-day broke the college record for total strength ability. The previous record was 2450 pounds, but Fisher's test sums up the exceptional total of 2625 pounds. This total is made up of the following specific tests: Back, 615 pounds; legs, 1150; chest 500; right forearm, 200; left forearm, 160; height, 6 feet; weight, 200 pounds; dip, 14; pull up, 15; chest, 43 inches; biceps (repose), 13.5; biceps (full), 15.5; capacity of lungs 330 cubic inches; breadth of shoulders, 18.5 inches; depth of chest, 10.3 inches.

Fisher, by his remarkable strength ability, can be rightly numbered among the strong men of any of the larger universities. For two years he has played left guard on the foot ball team, and will captain the team next season. He holds the college record for putting the shot and throwing the hammer, both of which records are better than the State intercollegiate-shot, 38 feet 6 inches; hammer 95 feet 10 inches.

The four next strongest men are Dowler '94; Dunsmore, '97; Morrow, '96 and White, '94, all foot ball players.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and untill the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by Cheney & Co Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, —John M. Dale, Esq., says he did not purchase the Ardell property on East Linn street, but only leased it for a term of three years. When Mr. Dale told our informant that he had "bought" the property, he added "for three years," but this part was not remarked by the gentleman from whom the writer got the information. However, it is to be hoped that after Mr. Dale and family have lived there three years they will become so much attached to the place that he will buy it.

BROTHER JONATHAN FOUND.

A Famous Wreck Located—The Sunken Ship Has $1,000,000 in Gold on Board.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 8.—If the story told by John F. Ryan, a diver, be true, the illstarred steamer Brother Jonathan has at last been found, after almost 30 years, at the bottom of the sea. The Brother Jonathan was lost July 3, 1865, about ten miles northwest of the Crescent City, with loss of 147 passengers and crew. There was $1,000,000 in treasure on board, and a dozen parties have sought systematically for the sunken hull. Ryan's story is substantiated by the ship's bricket, bearing the Brother Jonathan in brass letters, which he picked up on the deck of the wreck.

"Several years ago," says Ryan, "while captain of a steamer running on Puget sound, an old man named G. W. Hill hearing that I was a diver, told me he was assistant engineer of the Brother Jonathan when she foundered, and was one of the 19 survivors of the disaster. He could take me to the scene of the wreck, and was sure he could locate the exact spot where she went down. A few months ago he came again, and I accepted his offer. After arriving in the vicinity of where the ship went down, we located her in a remarkably short time in several hundred feet of water.

"I went down to the vessel, walked across her deck and all around her. There was not light enough for me to see at all, and I had to feel my way everywhere. Apparently, the Brother Jonathan is in excellent condition, and I have hopes of raising her. From what I learn, the gold in the ship is locked up in different parts of the vessel, and with the aid of light, I anticipate no difficulty in locating it. In the spring I shall make preparations and recover the lost treasure."

CHARITY THAT COUNTS.

Several weeks ago we mentioned the fact that the people of College, Harris and Ferguson townships, in the goodness of their hearts, were about to let their sympathy for the destitute of the Philadelphia working districts take tangible form, and several gentlemen, having constituted themselves a committee for receiving contributions, went to work to gather up a whole car load of farm products to be shipped away to the suffering in the city of Brotherly Love.

On last Friday there was packed into a refrigerator car, on the Pennsylvania siding, at Lemont, 300 bushels of potatoes, 40 barrels of flour, a 300lb dressed hog, 200lbs of salted meats, 200 full suits of clothing, 200 heads of cabbage and many other little substantials which are known only in the country and the aggregate of the whole car reached, at least $600.00 in value. This was the result of a little more than a week's charitable work in three townships in Centre county. And what a feeling of pride those country folk must have had when they saw all that evidence of their goodness ready for shipment. What made it all the more satisfactory was the knowledge that it had been a wholly voluntary work and that nearly every family visited had responded in a manner commensurate with their means.

If there should be similar undertakings in every one of the twenty-five townships in the county what blessed messengers to the suffering and unemployed those cars, laden with substantial provision, would be.

The people of College, Ferguson and Harris townships have reason to be proud of this substantial manifestation of their charity, representing, as they do, a class that is the most independent and perhaps sees least of the miserable side of life, as depicted in the cheerless home of the laborer whose very living stops when his work is done.—Watchman.

A TERRIBLE CYCLONE.

MEMPHIS, February 8.—A cyclone passed over the north western portion of Mississippi and Louisiana this afternoon and laid waste everything in its path. Plantations were devastated, farm houses were wrecked and the debris scattered over the country for miles around. The telegraph wires were prostrated and it is impossible to obtain particulars from the stricken district tonight, but it is known that three lives have been lost, all negroes. The cyclone passed through Washington and Boliver counties, thickly populated with prosperous farmers, and it is feared the death list will be greatly swelled when the details are known. The hurricane came from the southwest and was accompanied by the regulation funnel shaped cloud.

GOT A WARM RECEPTION.

GLOVERSVILLE, N. Y., February 8.—Hon. Thomas G. Shearman attempted to make an address in the opera house here last night. His mission was to explain the views of the Wilson tariff bill. The city is essentially republican and Mr. Shearman did not meet with a cordial reception. The house was packed, however, and the crowd listened attentively for awhile when cries of "tell us about gloves," "no free trade," etc., were chorused back and forth. Mr. Shearman tried to continue, but the disturbance was so great that he was compelled to stop. The crowd was so boisterous that the police were called to escort Mr. Shearman to his hotel.

—The Keystone league of Christian Endeavor society, of Howard, will hold an oyster, chicken and waffle supper and ice cream festival, on Feb. 22nd, Washington's birthday, in the Packer and Love building, in the rooms formerly occupied by Sam'l Brickley. There will be numerous fancy and useful articles sold at reasonable prices. The proceeds to be used for the benefit of the Evangelical church. All are very cordially invited to attend.

ROAD-MAKING WITHOUT TAXATION.

A road law was passed by the last Legislature, the bill having been introduced by Representative Loach, of Schuylkill county, the evident purpose by which is to allow coal companies and other individuals or corporations owning whole townships of land to build some roads instead of being compelled to pay road taxes to be frittered away to little purpose of officials who don't know how or don't care to make good roads. The act provides that one or more tax-payers in any township or road district may acquire the right by petition to the court of opening, amending and repairing the highways and bridges of the townships or road district at their own expense by furnishing a sufficient bond to protect the township against liability and paying to the township clerk $50, to each auditor $25, to the attorney of the supervisors $50 and to each supervisor $250.

This last feature of the law involves the individuals or corporations desiring to make good roads in an obligation to the township officials to the full amount they would be likely to earn if they took full charge of the roadmaking themselves. In other words, the road officials are to be paid to do nothing except make an occasional perfunctory inspection in order that the petitioners may spend their own taxes in building and repairing the roads. It might be thought these conditions would deter any individual or corporation from asking the privilege of any court to make and repair township roads. It appears, however, that the Board of City Trusts of Philadelphia and the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company and other coal corporations in the anthracite section are willing to pay this high penalty for the privilege and that petitions to this effect have been prepared for presentation to the courts.

The result of this single headed system of road making will be watched with not a little interest. It may be assumed that the individuals or corporations willing to furnish the required security and pay the specified salaries to officials who will have little or nothing to do, want some good roads for their money and that they will undertake to build and maintain them in a business like way. Eckley B. Coxe and a few other individual operators have managed to put this method into practice without the help of the law to the great improvement of the roads in the districts affected. The law will permit a much wider application of the method. If it is found to work satisfactorily in the anthracite section in the construction and maintenance of permanent roads there may be a possibility of giving the method a much wider application.

THE MARKET FOR GOOD HORSES.

Farmers the country over, and especially in the West, have complained that there is no profit to be had in raising horses; that where on the one side the business has been overdone, on the other there has been a steadily failing market, owing to the introduction of steam or electric power to take the place of horses. To this answer has been that the trouble is not with the number but the kind of horses which have been raised; that for the right kind there is still an active market and prices remain remunerative. That this is correct the figures of the sales in New York yesterday are evidence. Among the horses sold there were a half dozen the prices of which ranged from $1,125 to $5,500. These were, of course, animals which the average farmer would not undertake to raise, but he could raise such as many of the others were, which sold at more moderate figures. It is as easy to raise a horse worth $300 as one worth less than the third of that, and such a horse will find a market when the other will not. While electricity and steam have displaced a certain class of horses, and a very learge class, it has not displaced that fondness for fine ones which is almost a passion among all able to own carriages. As a matter of fact, the increase in wealth is increasing the demand for fine horses, by which is not meant the rare and exceptional ones famous for speed, but those which are attractive and fit for average service in riding or driving. In this particular as in many others, the country has gone past the cheap and the common which was once satisfactory, and whoever aims to prosper in his business, whatever it may be, must recognize that fact and act accordingly.

PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY.

The annual meeting of the Preachers' Aid Society, of the Central Pennsylvania Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, was held at Dickinson Seminary, Williamsport, Thursday afternoon. Rev. M. K. Foster, Presiding Elder of the district, was elected President, and Rev. S. B. Evans, of the Third Street Methodist church, was elected Secretary.

The report of the managers of the society was received and adopted and nine managers were elected. A committee was appointed to represent the society at the coming annual conference and to arrange for an anniversary.

Treasurer Lewis McDowell submitted his report which was read and adopted. It shows the affairs of the society to be in an excellent condition, and the members feel greatly encouraged over the future outlook.

—At present there seems to be very little sickness in Bellefonte. Even the grip has almost entirely disappeared.

MR. CHILD'S WEALTH.

It May Amount to $5,000,000—No Endowments Made.

PHILADELPHIA, February 8—A gentleman qualified to speak regarding Mr. Child's wealth and plans said this evening: "Mr. Childs made his gifts while he lived, as he desired to have personal gratification in the expenditures. He gave thousands yearly. His estate will probably figure about $5,000,000. It may be less because of his princely gifts. While Mrs. Childs has full knowledge of the desired plans of her husband, nothing definite has been arranged, and will be many months before anything is done. The plans do not provide for any public institution or endowment. Mr. Childs was educating at his own expense some sixty young girls and women, and these will be cared for. Three months ago Mr. Childs remarked: "Should I die to-morrow, every arrangemet has been made for carrying out my wishes, and there will be no tangle anywhere."

"The Public Ledger property from this time forward is controlled by the A. J. Drexel estate. George W. Childs Drexel is in absolute charge to-day, under the direction of the trustees of A. J. Drexel's will. The Ledger has earned about $400,000 net per year during the past ten years. Mr. Childs held a one-third interest in the property, and the trustees will in a few days arrange to purchase that interest from Mrs. Childs under an agreement between Messrs. Childs and Drexel, made in 1885."

BALLOT REFORM IN GERMANY.

Since the appearance of the Australian ballot law there has been something like a craze for secrecy in voting, which culminated in a proposition made to the German Reichstag yesterday, that "an isolated room shall be furnished" in each district, "in which the electors shall write their tickets and place them in envelopes." It is said that the proposition was generally supported except by the imperialists and Conservatives. A famous German said that life is short and art long. Those ballot reformers must think life is long, too, if they expect the voters to write their tickets after entering the booths, and especially if they expect those who do the counting to read correctly the names written by the average voters. But the word write in this connection may be accepted in other than the literal meaning—as marking or scratching the tickets. It is easy to see the advantage sought by the use of the envelope, but not easy to see wherein it would be any greater than that enjoyed under the arrangement of the ballot in Pennsylvania. While it is wise to guard the secrecy of the ballot, it is jolly to believe that there ever were such abuses as charged when the new ballot law was adopted in the various States. While it is wise to guard the secrecy of the ballot, it is a thing which can be overdone and end in harm. It is far from wise to relieve men from all necessity of maintaining openly their political convictions. A voter ought not to be taught to feel when he goes to the polls that in voting he is doing something which he dare not allow his fellow men to know. Secrecy can end in harm when it ends in surreptitiousness.

TREASURER MILES WANTS THE $50.

About ten days ago when Judge Furst handed down his decision on the opera house license question Manager Al. S. Garman, of Garman's opera house, went to county treasurer Miles and paid over his fifty dollars, as the license for a year. Since that time, however, Mr. Miles has received further intructions from Auditor General Gregg to collect $50 from every show appearing in Bellefonte. Consequently, he has paid Manager Garman his fifty dollars back and now declares that he will collect the stated amount from every show which exhibits here in the future. As the first one to come will be Bartholomew's horse show next week Mr. Miles will soon have a chance to try his pewers as a collector. Those who have given the act of legislature some study say next week's attraction would not come under the head of shows requiring a license. At all events there is every likelihood of this vexing question reaching a climax in Centre county in the near future.

A FIRE AT POTTSVILLE.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., February 8.—The jig house of the Philadelphia and Reading company's coal storage yard just below Schuylkill Haven caught fire at 8.30 o'clock this evening and was totally destroyed. The fire communicated to the shipping wharf and in a short time at least a portion of the large quantity of coal stored in the yard was in danger. The company's electric light plant was also destroyed.

The fire is supposed to have originated from a defective electric light wire as the jig house men were not working and the boiler house is detached.

The jig house which is used for rescreening the coal stored in the yards awaiting to be shipped as the demand is created in the market was valued at $30,000.

MRS. LEASE WINS HER CASE.

TOPEKA, Feb. 8.—The Supreme Court today rendered a decision in the case of Mary Ellen Lease vs. Governor Lewelling. The decision of the court is that the Governor is without authority to remove Mrs. Lease from the position as a member of the State Charities Board.

Mrs. Lease will at once begin an investigation tour of the state elemosynary institutions. It is stated that Governor Lewelling is satisfied with the decision as it relieves him from an embarrassing political situation.

THE CARPENTER MURDER TRIAL.

MIFFLINTOWN, February 9.—The testimony in the Carpenter case, as submitted at to-day's sessions of court by the commonwealth, was clearly and strongly against the prisoner, and the chain of circumstances is being closely woven around him. It was proven that the defendant had made vicious threats against his murdered father a short time prior to the homicide, and that their relations for some time prior to the event had been notoriously unfriendly. Witnesses testified as to the prisoner's declarations immediately after the murder, and it will be hard to reconcile them with innocence of the crime. The trial will not be concluded until next week. A motion to continue the case of Mrs. Hettie Carpenter, who is indicted as principal in the murder, was made by ex-Judge Bucher this afternoon. The motion was not opposed by the district attorney and was sustained by the court. Her case will be called in April.

THE REFORMATION.

The story of the German Reformation will be told by Mrs. H. E. Monroe, with the aid of eighty-five stereopticon views, in the Lock Haven opera house on Thursday and Friday evenings Feb. 15th and 16th, under the auspices of St. John's English Lutheran church.

The leading events of Luther's life will be represented by one hundred young people in 16th century costumes.

The lecture, music and dramatic representations will be pleasing and edifying.

You are cordially invited to come and bring your friends.

"The story of the Reformation, as told by Mrs. Monroe at the opera house last evening, was a most gratifying success, artistically, socially, and not least important, financially."—New Brunswick Press.

S.S.S. CURES MALARIAL POISON

Nature should be assisted to throw off impurities of the blood. Nothing does it so well, so promptly, or so safely as Swift's Specific.

LIFE HAD NO CHARMS.

For three years I was troubled with malarial poison, which caused my appetite to fail, and I was greatly reduced in flesh, and life lost all its charms. I tried mercurial and potash remedies, but to no effect. I could get no relief. I then decided to try S.S.S. A few bottles of this wonderful medicine made a complete and permanent cure, and I now enjoy better health than ever.

THERAPION CURE TRADE MARK FOR YOUS DEBILITY

Prof. HARRIS' SOLUBLE MEDICATED Pastille

Has been put up in a proprietary form since 1878, and has been used for years prior to that time in private practice. It is no untried nostrum, of doubtful reputation, but a genuine specific for a very prevalent disease. Thousands of men, of all ages, have at some time in life brought on nervous debility and exhaustion, with organic weakness, by over brain work, excesses, too frequent indulgence or indiscretion and vicious habits, and it is to these that we offer a remedy that will, by its direct action upon the seat of the disease, stop the drain and restore the patient to vigorous health and strength.

Our method of introducing Prof. Harris' Pastille treatment is one which commends itself to all sensible persons—for the reason that we supply it upon their judgment of its value. We ask of our patrons nothing in the way of expense beyond a postal card and a two cent postage stamp. The postal card to be used in sending us their full address and the postage stamp for the letter returning the statement of their case for which we supply them with a question blank, to be filled out and an envelope addressed to ourselves for use in returning it when filled.

FREE TRIAL PACKAGES. When we receive the statement on blank we prepare eight days' treatment and forward it by mail and prepay postage thereon—and along with the eight days' treatment we send full directions for using. The treatment in no way interferes with a person's attention to business, and causes no pain or inconvenience in any way.

We are so positive that it will give perfect satisfaction that we leave the matter of sending orders entirely with those using the free trial treatment. Having satisfied those sending for trial packages of our ability to benefit their sexual condition we feel they are more largely interested than ourselves in continuing the use of the Pastilles. Even then we do not attempt to rob them by demanding high prices. On the contrary, we make the prices as low as possible, and the same to all. They are as follows: $3 for one month; $5 for two months; $7 for three months.

GRAPE & BOX OF A SEMINAL PASTILLE

These prices secure the delivery of the Pastilles by mail. If desired by express we leave the patient to pay the charges. For over ten years we have operated our business upon this plan with satisfactory results.

We ask all persons needing treatment for any of the secret ills which come to mankind through a violation of nature's laws to send us their address on postal card or by letter and allow us to convince them that PROF. HARRIS' SOLUBLE MEDICATED PASTILLES have merit and are what they need.

WORK OF TRAIN ROBBERS.

A Missouri, Kansas and Texas Train Derailed Thursday Night.

ST. LOUIS, MO., February 9.—Train wreckers removed the rails and fish plates of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas road near Houston, Texas, last night. A passenger train was derailed and several persons injured.

The train was No. 3 southbound, and was made up of two chair cars, a sleeper, a smoker and a baggage and mail car. The wreck occurred at 8.40 last night. The fishplates had been removed from the rails and spikes drawn at a point near the Houston Heights bridge. As the train reached the rails which had been loosened, the engine jumped the track, followed by the mail and baggage cars and two coaches. The engine rolled down the embankment, which is twenty-five feet high at that point and landed under the bridge. The cars reached the ditch upside down.

The passengers in the sleeper, which was left on the track, set about rescuing those imprisoned in the overturned cars. After all had been extricated it was found that Mrs. R. A. Snyder was slightly injured. J A Carter, baggage master; Lou Morris, the mail agent, and Express Messenger Hatton were all seriously, possibly mortally wounded.

Shortly after the wreck occurred Brakeman James Elliott was sent back to flag a following freight. He had not proceeded farther than one hundred yards when a volley of revolver and rifle shots was poured upon him at short range from ambush, two bullets taking effect, one in the neck and the other in his right leg. His condition is very critical. A relief train reached the scene of the wreck about 10 o'clock and the passengers and injured were taken to Houston.

The Missouri, Kansas and Texas officials here are at a loss to understand who the wreckers can be, nor can they surmise the object of the wreck. The are unable to determine whether the purpose was robbery or revenge for grievance, fancied or real, against the company. Robbery was probably the motive, however. The officials have taken steps to capture, if possible, the men committing the deed, but will do so through their own detectives and will offer no rewards.

CAUSED A SENSATION.

WATKINS, N. Y., February 9.—The greatest sensation that has been created in Watkins and the surrounding country in years was caused to-day when the doors of the First National bank were closed and the following startling announcement was posted on them: "Closed because the cashier has run away."

The cashier is John W. Love, the president of the village and one of the leading men of the town. It has been learned that Love left Watkins some time last night and the amount that he took with him from the bank vaults is estimated to be about $50,000.

For some time Love and others of this place have been interested in a city boom at West Muncia Ind., and it is generally believed that he became involved through speculation there. Love is 35 years of age and has a family. The bank has many depositors in Watkins and vicinity, and groups of men are to be seen on every corner discussing the matter.

Love left a letter, stating that he was insane and would kill himself by shooting or jumping into the lake, but this is thought to be a bluff on account of his taking the bank fund's. It is reported that there were $10,000 of state money in the bank and the funds of the town of Dix were also there.

The excitement has been intensified by the finding of Love's coat and hat on the dock at MaGee's boat house. It is rumored that a Watkin's girl to whom Love has been attentive is also missing.

COMMITTED SUICIDE.

PITTSBURGH, February 9.—James Ross, aged 39 years, and married, attempted to kill his wife and mother-in-law to-night, and them committed suicide by shooting himself through the heart in Mt. Washington, a suburb of Pittsburgh. Ross and his wife had been married six years and had a family of four children.

They had been separated nearly two years. To-night Ross went to his mother-in-law's house for the purpose of killing her and his wife. He drew his revolver on his wife, but she held his arm till her father arrived, who kicked Ross out of the house. Ross then went to his home and shot himself through the heart.

STOLE A STORE FULL.

PHILIPSBURG, Pa., Feb. 9.—Three brothers, James, Charles and Thomas Meyers, John Holba and Henry Smith, heretofore respected citizens of this vicinity, are in the station house to-night, charged with having been engaged in several extensive robberies. On a search of their premises being made, it is said the officers found sufficient clothing to stock a store, two half-barrels of whisky, several guns, a score of revolvers, besides boots, shoes and groceries.

A DEFECTIVE STATUTE.

A daring lawmaker of Massachusetts, filled with the true spirit of reform, has undertaken the heroic task of regulating female dress by act of Assembly. Such regulations are said to have been in force in an earlier period in New England, and why not again? The member from Heverhill does not mean to be behind his Puritan predecessors.

The proposed act prescribes the upper and lower boundaries, so to speak, of the dress in which a woman of Massachusetts may "appear at a public performance." The term "performance" is not defined in the bill, but it presumably applies to balls, the opera and other functions of a more or less public character. It is interesting to know what is considered the correct thing in Haverhill.

The skirts of the dress, the bill provides, shall "come within at least four inches of the floor." This knocks out the dress reformers, who insist that the skirt should at least clear the shoe tops. It is about the most ungraceful length to which a skirt can be cut, but that is probably what the Haverhill man desires. If a woman should have her frock four and one-half inches from the floor, she would be liable to a penalty of $500.

What follows is still more interesting. She is also forbidden to appear in a dress, "the waist of which is so constructed that any part of her person is exposed below the neck. This sounds a little startling at first blush, but it will be found that here the statute would prove fatally defective. For it never yet has been definitely decided by the dressmakers at what point between the head and the waist the "neck" terminates.

A MONUMENT TO MR. CHILDS.

It is only natural that there should be a spontaneous sentiment alike in Philadelphia and throughout the country favorable to a monument to the late George W. Childs. He was so broad and generous in his philanthropy, and so exemplary in his life, that there would be eminent fitness in the erection of a monument to him in the City of Brotherly Love, and if proper measures shall be taken to afford an opportunity for popular subscriptions there is no reason to doubt that an ample sum will be promptly furnished.

It would be easy to erect a costly monument to Mr. Childs by an appeal to the men of fortune with whom he was so closely associated in the affairs of his life, but a monument in Philadelphia to Mr. Childs should come from the people whose citizenship he so grandly portrayed, and a plan should be organized at once to enable the masses to erect this tribute to one who made himself illustrious as a common benefactor.

We sincerely hope that measures will be taken at once to erect a monument to Mr. Childs in this city. It could fitly adorn one of the many conspicuous points around the City Hall, where it would be seen by more people than in any other place. The Park would probably be claimed by many as the most suitabe place for a statue of Mr. Childs, but either the eastern or western thoroughfare through the Public Buildings would be the most appropriate place for such a memorial of one whose life and character summoned the people to pay lasting tribute to his memory.

HOLIDAY CHEER.

The holiday season is close upon us, and every household in the land is prearing for the plum pudding, and the general and feasting and rejoicing. A little good brandy for the mince pie, rum for the pudding, for a little stimulant to keep the spirits up and the cold out, is absolutely necessary for an old time Christmas cheer. One of the most prominent liquor dealers in the country, Mr. Max Klein of Allegheny, Pa., whom we can cheerfully recommend, and who has the reputation for handling only absolutely pure liquors, will sell you the following brands of six years old pure Penn'a Ryes, at $1.00 per full quart or six for $5.00: Bear Creek, Gibson, Guckenheimer, Finch, and Overholt. The famous Silver Age, the finest whiskey in the country at $1.50 and Duquesne, a whiskey distilled from Rye and Malt, at $1.25 per quart, Guckenheimer 4 years old, at 75c per quart, and the Anchor Rye at 50c. You can have your choice of all kinds of California Wines, Gins, Rum and Brandy, all pure, and old, at from 50 cents per quart up.

All goods bottled and bearing the signature of Max Klein for sale by S Shloss Agt Williamsport.

THE LOSS OF THE KEARSARGE.

Every patriotic American feels a pang at the thought that the cherished old Kearsarge has gone to the bottom. She was a reminder of one of the most gallant sea fights of the Civil War, and one of the most important victories. When the news of the encounter with the Alabama was received it set every loyal heart pulsing with pride, for in destroying that vessel she raised the national prestige. And all the higher for the way she went about it, in a manner truly chivalric. No sea fight of modern time made a deeper impression than that in which she engaged off the French coast, and the story of none is now read with a keener zest. As a result she has been regarded by Americans with an affection like that which goes out to a person and she has been better known than ever the valiant man who commanded her. Few details of her fate have been received, but few as they are they leave the conviction that she is gone forever. She has laid her bones among the rocks of a Central American reef, in her death crowning the romantic interest of her life.

PURCHASED A HOME.

All his friends here and elsewhere will be pleased to know that John M. Dale Esq., has just leased the old Ardell property on East Linn street, which he will have fully repaired and fixed up, and will move there with his family the first of April and make that his future home. Mr. Dale could not have found a nicer location in Bellefonte and, although the house is now a little out of repair owing to its being unoccupied for a couple of years, when once fixed up it will be just as handsome, comfortable and convenient a place as can be found anywhere. Mr. Dale is to be congratulated on his choice and East Linn streeters are to be congratulated on getting such a pleasant family as neighbors.

Other changes which will take place in the near future are the occupancy of the Brew residence on Spring street by Mr. Harry Keller and family. Mrs. Brew will take up her residence for the present with Mrs. Curtin. Mrs. Orvis and her daughter, Miss Caroline, will close up the old homestead and spend the remainder of this winter with Ellis Orvis, Esq., and family, and in the spring the whole family will move up to the old homestead and there make their future home. In the meantime the present handsome home of Ellis Orvis is for sale or rent.

THE G. A. R. AGAINST A HISTORY.

PAILADELPHIA, February 9.—Posts Nos. 2 and 19 Grand Army of the Republic last night took a strong stand against the introduction into the public schools of Ellis's complete history of the United States and a series of resolutions addressed to the board of education. Similar action was taken by the Grand Army men in Idaho two weeks ago. The resolutions adopted by post No. 2 last night protests against the selection and distribution of this book to the scholars of the public schools of this city for these reasons:

That its tone is biased in favor of treason and the cause of the south. It vilely belittles and aims to detract from the fidelity, courage and patriotic work performed by the soldiers of the union armies, and by undue prominence seeks to ennoble the soldiers of the rebel armies who sought to destroy the government, and refers to them endeavoring terms harsher than that of confederates.

It suppresses in many instances our heroes, and persistently and conspicuously depicts in strong colors the achievements of the rebel commanders and their armies.

STATE SUPERINTENDENT of Public Instruction Schaeffer assures the County Superintendent of Tioga that he is not playing a game of bluff in sending out an order that unless school districts have a continuous term he will hold their appropriation. Dr. Schaeffer rules that the division of the six months into several terms is a manifest violation of the law. This is done by country district School Boards to save a month or two, in the meanwhile depriving pupils of the benefits of the school law. A number of districts have even reduced the term and the tax as well, depending on the appropriation to pull them through. These are the districts Dr. Schaeffer is after, and his assurance to the Superintendent of Tioga in his answer to every county in the State. It will brace up the economical Directors to the meaning of the law.

—An exchange puts it in this way, and puts it correctly too. "We wouldn't trust a man near a hen house who would order a newspaper stopped through a postmaster when he is in arrears. It is a cowardly way of refusing to pay an honest debt."

MR. WILSON WORSE.

KANSAS CITY, February 11.—To-night a change for the worse came in the condition of Congressman W. L. Wilson, who arrived in this city yesterday morning enroute to Mexico. Mr. Wilson caught a severe cold and suffered a chill while on his way from Washington to Chicago last week. Against the advice of his physician he left Chicago Friday night and came to Kansas City to fill an appointment to speak here last night. At 7 o'clock last evening Mr. Porter positively forbade his leaving the hotel. To-day he felt better and this afternoon the doctor thought Mr. Wilson could continue his journey Tuesday, but to-night the great tariff reformer was attacked by a high fever and is now a very sick man. It is doubtful if he will be able to leave here this week.

THE FRESHMEN BANQUET.

State College Students Have a Jolly Time In Lock Haven.

Saturday's Lock Haven Democrat says: Thirty-six freshmen, members of the class of '97 of the State college, arrived in this city last evening and were banquetted at the Fallon House. The tables were nicely decorated and the bill of fare was prepared in Landlord Schuyler's excellent style. After the various courses had been served, responses were made to toasts as follows: "Our Class," C. W. Hardt; "The Faculty," D. P. Goodman; "Athletics," J. A. Dunsmore; "Cider," A. L. Cromlish. P. T. Sellers, son of General Sellers, acted as toast master, and ably filled the position. The students left for the college this morntng.

The freshmen were jubilant over the manner in which they had outwitted the sophomores in getting away from the college. The rivalry between the two classes had become so bitter as to induce the sophomores to embarass the freshmen wherever they could in formulating their plans for the proposed trip and banquet. The freshmen, however, were on the alert and taking advantage of a favorable opportunity succeeded in reaching the train at State College before any of the sophomores could catch them.

As soon as the freshmen boarded the train they locked the doors and barred the windows. The sophomores made repeated efforts to gain admittance, but were unsuccessful. Finally one of their number climbed on the roof of the car and poured a large quantity of sulphur down the stove chimney. The lack of ventilation caused by the closed windows and ventilators resulted in the train officials running the car a mile or so from the station and out of the reach of the sophomores in order to allow the ones inside an opportunity to remove the stifling effects of the sulphur fumes. The train left on schedule time amid the shouts of the victorious freshmen.

The State college has now 288 students and 41 instructors, with an endowment of over $500,000.

BY LAYING-ON OF HANDS.

Woman restored to perfect health! Just faith and confidence enough required to lay hold of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, administer it with a little patience and a little perseverance, and complete restoration to health and vitality is insured. Not far, indeed, from the miraculous, are many of the wonderful cures of lost womanhood it has affected. There are few cases, indeed, within the requirements of sick and suffering women, outside or beyond its helpful influence. So confident are the makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription of its power to heal all female diseases, that they warrant satisfaction in every instance, or refund money. Large bottles $1.00 (6 for $5.00); at druggists.

YOU DON'T SAY SO.

Bellefonte is desirous of entering the State league. If that town is admitted to the league there are very grave doubts as to whether it would be a drawing card or whether it would be a repetition of last season's Danville club. The town has a population of about 6,000 inhabitants, which is sufficient evidence that it would not take well, as the rivalry in base ball is always among the cities that are rivals in population, etc. It is understood that Pottsville, a place larger than Bellefonte, and where base ball is at fever heat, and Williamsport, another good base ball city, are anxious to become members of the league. Cities of the class of those previously referred to should be allowed to come in, and such places as Bellefonte and other minor towns given the go-by.—Altoona Times

Just how the impression has gone throughout the state that Bellefonte is just dying to get a league franchise is hard to conjecture. So far as the writer knows, there is not a base ball "crank" in Bellefonte who has even intimated a desire to have a state league club here, let alone take any steps toward getting an entrance. About the truth of the matter is, the management of the state league, fearful lest the requisite number of clubs cannot be properly located, are keeping Bellefonte on the string as a last resort should another club be needed. We don't think Bellefonte has any desire to enter the league but, if it has and should do so, you can just depend on her going in the business in the right way and keeping abreast with the other clubs, financially, in per centage of games won and otherwise.

WHY CAN'T I WORK?

Why Do I Get Weakand Tired So Easily.

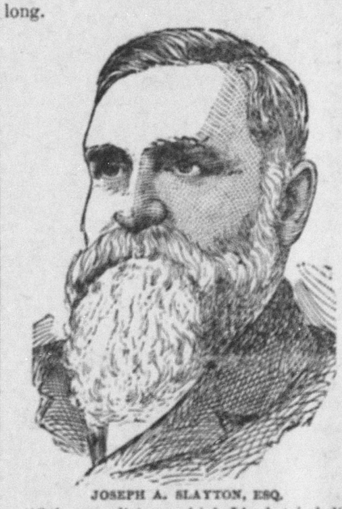
QUESTIONS THAT ARE CONSTANTLY ASKED BY THOUSANDS.

A Prominent Business Man Gives Advice Needed by Everybody.

The world is filled with weak, suffering men and women. Oh! if they could only be made well and strong how different their lives would be! And they can be so just as well as not. Read the following letter from Mr. Joseph A. Slayton, one of the most prominent men of Calais, Vt.:

"Two years ago I was taken with the grippe. I had to take to my bed and was very sick. I came very near death. I was confined to my bed six weeks, when I got up I was very weak and could but just get around. I employed physicians who did me very little good.

"I had serious trouble with my heart, so bad that I fell and received serious injury. I was completely run down and could not do any work on account of nervous prostration. I was thoroughly discouraged. A friend advised me to try Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. "I had to have something to help me immediately or I could not live long.



JOSEPH A. SLAYTON, ESQ.

"Other medicines which I had tried did me no good. I took one bottle of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy and it set me right on my feet.

"I could not help having faith in this wonderful medicine even if I wanted to. It cured me completely. Before I took it I was so dizzy I did not dare go away to work alone, I would fall down and hurt me badly. Since taking Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, my health is good and my nerves are steady. I know it is the best medicine and advise all to use it."

If you are weak, sickly, nervous, run down, or have any nervous or chronic disease, take Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. It will surely cure you. The spring is the best time to take it. You can always be cured quickest at this season. Everybody needs a spring medicine, and there is none which will do as much for you as Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. It is a positive cure. Try it. It is purely vegetable and harmless and is the discovery of Dr Greene, of 35 West 14th Street, New York City, the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. He can be consulted personally or by letter, free of charge.

A party of men from Altoona went to the mountains north of Wopsononock recently to hunt bear. During a heavy storm the snow drifted around their cabin imprisoning them four days. The party had plenty of provisions but their fuel gave out. By great efforts they succeeded in making an opening through one of the drifts and secured a good supply of wood for fuel. After getting thawed out they abandoned the bear chase and returned home.

IS HE A POISONER?

A Sensation in a Baltimore Court Yesterday.

BALTIMORE, Md., February 13,—A sensation in the now celebrated Dr. Kremin case developed this afternoon when Prof. P. B. Wilson, the chemist who has been analyzing the contents of the stomach of John Forre, alias Hanbuch, discovered unmistakable evidence of poison. Owing to the yet incomplete state of the analytical experiments, Prof. Wilson is unable to determine the exact nature of the poison, but he is sure the stomach of the dead man contains some poisonous drug.

To-day's discovery may result in the exhuming of Karl Henry Muller's body to determine if he did not die of poison Forre and Muller were patients of Dr. Kremin, and they died very suddenly. Dr. Kremin is locked up, charged with forging a will in Forre's name, which gave to Kremin's wife an estate of $6,000. Muller was a witness to the will and it is stated now that it was a forgery. Muller suddenly became ill and died within forty-eight hours.

It is said that Kremin had a dozen dogs and that he experimented upon them with various poisons to note the effect. Ten of the animals had died up to the time of his arrest a few days ago. Marshal Frey has received a letter from Inspector Shea, of Chicago, stating that Kremin has apparently been confounded with Dr. Meyer, now awaiting a second trial for murder in New York, but the Chicago police do not know the Baltimore doctor.

UNITED MINE WORKERS.

The representatives of district No. 2, United Mine Workers of America, are holding their annual convention in Altoona. This district is composed of the counties of Jefferson, Clearfield, Centre, Indiana, Cambria, Blair, Huntingdon and Bedford.

The convention assembled at 10 o'clock yesterday morning in the lodge room in the Stehle block. The meeting was called to order by District Master Workman and President T. A. Bradley, of Lilly. There was quite a fair representation considering the present state of trade. Among those assembled was the national secretary treasurer, Patrick McBride, of Columbus, O.

The usual routine business was transacted and the organization of the convention effected. At 12 o'clock the meeting adjourned until 1 p. m.

The afternoon session was consumed by the appointing of the various committees and in discussing work relative to the organization and of interest to members only. At 5 o'clock an adjournment was taken until 8 o'clock this morning. In the meantime the committees appointed will make out their reports, which will be presented at to-day's session,

A woman sitting in an elevated train car quietly got up and stood in the aisle. After she had been standing there for about half a minute everybody began to look to see why she did it. Then they discovered that a large bumblebee had taken possession and was sailing around contentedly in the vacant space.

The woman near by looked anxious, and those at the other end of the car looked amused. Several of the men looked as though they would like to do something, but did not know just what.

Then the bee concluded to move on and try some other seats. In less than another half minute every one on that side of the car had vacated and was standing in the aisle.

Some of the people looked silly, others looked annoyed, and others had a broad grin, evidently enjoying the fun of the situation.

One man took off his hat to strike at the bee.

"Don't try to fight him!" shricked another. "You'll get stung sure."

A tall, dignified looking woman in black satin executed a deliberate Delsartean curve at that moment to evade the bee, and a fat man stepped back on a small woman's corns.

Then a stout, good natured looking man, in a tall gray hat, who had been sitting on the other side, quietly got up and opened one of the closed blinds, and Mr. Bee sailed out with the utmost composure.

No one said anything but the woman who had first stood up, and she thanked the man in the gray hat right out loud and with considerable emphasis.—New York Recorder.

Ill Tempered.

Sir Francis Nicholson, who was sent over by the English government some 200 years ago as lieutenant governor of New England, left behind him a reputation for bad temper.

He refused to consider the advice of members of his own council and abused them even in session. His oaths and threats could be heard even at a distance from the council room.

"One might as well pretend to describe a hurricane to one that never saw it as to think to describe the brutality and savageness of his passions," quotes The Magazine of American History in discussing him, but the cleverest bit of characterization comes from an Indian's lips. While he had command of the army Nicholson fell into one of those fits of rage wherein he almost seemed to lose command of his reason.

"The general is drunk," said the Indian to an officer.

"No," was the reply, "he never drinks any strong liquor."

"I do not mean that he is drunk with rum," said the Indian. "He was born

An Extensive Cave-in and Thirteen Men Are Entombed.

WILKESBARRE, Feb. 13.—An extensive cave-in occurred at the Caylord slope of the Kingston Coal company, Plymouth, this morning. Thirteen men are entombed. Rescuers are hard at work. There is but little hope of getting the men out alive.

The following are the names of the men entombed: Thomas Leyshon, Michael Welsh, Peter McLaughlin, John Arner, Dan Morgan, Joseph Ordes, Thomas Picton, Thomas Jones, Richard Davis, John Morris, James Kingdon, Thomas Morrison, Thomas Coyle. Nearly all are married, with large families. It is now believed all the men who were caught in the fall are dead.

John Cuddy, who was at work with the entombed men, escaped with his life by a hair's breadth. The fall cut him off from the other workers by about two feet, making a sort of dividing wall between him and his companions. Immediately after the roof had fallen in he heard the men who were entombed groaning, then all was silent. He ran and gave the alarm and the work of rescue was at once begun.

At no time, it is believed, was there any hope of taking the men out alive. At this writing the rescuers are still working hard.

The Gaylord mine, or slope, has been considered an ill-fated colliery for more than a year past. Only a month ago there was an extentsive cave-in of the surface, which weakened the shaft of the whole mine. So far as can be learned, the accident to day was caused by a further depression of the surface. The superintendent of the mine reports that only thirteen men are entombed, but seventeen are missing. The relatives of the entombed men are gathered at the mouth of the slope, and their cries of distress would move the stoutest heart. Everything that can be done is being done to reach the entombed men.

FORTUNES FOR THREE.

MERCER, Pa., Feb. 13.—Saturday last George Steele was a laborer at the Sharon Steel Casting Company's works. To-day he is estimated to be worth $40,000, left him by an uncle who died in England about two years ago. Two years ago John Steele died and bequeathed all his property to his nephew, George Steele. The nephew could not be located, and an advertisement was placed in several papers and kept there ever since. It was only lately that Steele's wife saw it. She hadn't the least idea that the person advertised for was her husband, but wrote to the lawyers and finally succeeded in proving that her husband was the missing man. The letter stated that £150 had been advanced to her from the estate to keep her until everything could be arranged for a settlement.

A special to THE DISPATCH from Sharpsville, Pa., says: It was announced here today that Messrs. Lewis and James Barlet had fallen heirs to a fortune by the death of a relative in Baltimore, and will receive as their share of the estate, which is valued at $350,000, about $21,000. Both men live here. The other heirs live in Clarion county.

THE WHISKY TRUST.

Proceedings Will Be Reopened Against It—The Price Advanced.

PEORIA, Ill., February 11.—President Greenhut to-day returned from Chicago where he has been for the last few days. In an interview, he said he knew nothing of the intention of Attorney General Melony to reopen the quo warranto proceedings instituted against the whisky trust some time ago in Chicago. The verdict in the case of the whisky trust against Gleasner and Sarsen, at Kansas City, Mo., where a jury decided that the trust cannot enforce the provisions in the rebate vouchers that require customers to purchase all their goods from it, will be appealed. Mr. Greenhut said there must be some mistake somewhere. The United States circuit and district courts and the supreme court of Wisconsin have decided the rebate system legal and he thought the same rule appliciable to Missouri. He expressed himself as anticipating an ihcreased tax in the state, but the statements sent out from Washington and published throughout the country were unofficial, as no action whatever had been taken. The price of whisky in bond was increased two cents a gallon the last week. Business, he said, was good and if the speculative demand continued the trust would be compelled to advance prices around. There has been an increase in capacity within the last few days, but having just returned he was not prepared to say what this increase amounted to. The company, however, proposed to fill all the orders. The February meeting will not be held for more than a week yet and will probably be devoted to routine matters only.

CAPT. SKINNER'S CASE.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Feb. 11—The soldiers' orphans' school commission will meet here next Friday evening. By that time it is expected Judge Simonton will have decided the question as to the eligibility of Capt. George W. Skinner, pension agent at Pittsburgh, to membership on the commission, and disposed of the application by the advocates of Boiling Springs for a permanent injunction restraining the commission from purchasing the site at Scotland, Franklin county, for the proposed industrial school for soldiers' orphans. In that event the purchase money will be paid over to the owners of the Scotland site and arrangements made for the erection and equipment of the building.

WHITE CAPS WHIP A WOMAN.

HARRODSBURG, Ky., February 10.—A band of White Caps has committed a crowning outrage here. Fifty masked men rode up to the home of Samuel Milton, near here, broke open the door, dragged Mrs. Milton out of bed and gave thirty lashes with hickory switches. The one garment the regulators left on her was torn into shreds before they finished. They left, saying the punishment was because she was suspected of infidelity.

Circuit court is in session and Judge M. C. Saufly has instructed the grand jury to ferret out the miscreants, even if it be necessary for him to extend the term of the grand jury for that expressed purpose.

ARRIVED IN NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, February 11—Among the passengers that arrived here to-day on the New York was Robert Fulford, the husband of the late Annie Pixley, the actress who recently died in England. Mr. Fulford came over to meet the accusations made against him by the family of Miss Pixley in regard to the manner of her death and the property she is supposed to have left.

A BIG FIRE IN DULUTH.

DULUTH, Minn., February 11.—The board of trade building in which were located the offices of the board, the North American and Western Union telegraph companies, the American Steel Barge company, The Lake Superior Union Improvement and Duluth Elevator companies and the offices of nearly all the city grain and vessel firms was entirely destroyed by fire at noon to-day. The board of trade building was built in 1885 and cost $75,000. The total loss from to-day's fire is $94,000, with an insurance of $80,000.

THE ONWARD MARCH

of Consumption is stopped short by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Always, if you haven't waited beyond reason, there is complete recovery and cure. In those scrofulous conditions of the blood which invite Consumption; in severe, lingering Coughs, and Weak Lungs, which "threaten you with it," in Consumption itself, and when other help has failed—this medicine is a proved remedy.

As a blood-cleanser, strength-restorer, and flesh-builder, nothing like it is known to medical science. The "Discovery" far surpasses nasty Cod liver oil and all its filthy compounds as a flesh-builder for those reduced in weight below a healthy standard. It is guaranteed, as no other medicine of the kind. In all lingering Bronchial, Throat, and Lung affections, and in every disease that can be reached through the blood, if it ever fails to benefit or cure, you have your money back.

The Catarrh that isn't cured costs $500. Not to you, but to the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. They promise to pay you the money, if you have an incurable case.

SKEWERED AND CURED

"First I was skewered and then I was cured," says Jones, and he laughs heartily over his little joke. Well let him laugh. Let laugh who wins. He was skewered through and through by dyspepsia and its attendant train of ills. He was cured by Dr Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Do you feel dull, languid, low-spirited; experience a sense of fullness or bloating after eating, tongue coated, bitter or bad taste in the mouth, irregular appetite, dizziness, frequent headaches, nervous prostration or exhaustion, hot flushes alternating with chilly sensations, sharp, biting transient pains here and there, cold feet, drowsiness after meals, wakefulness, or disturbed and unrefreshing sleep, constant and indescribable feeling of dread, or of impending calamity.

These are symptoms of Bilious Dyspepsia or Torpid Liver, associated with Dyspepsia, or Indigestion. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will subdue the cause, if taken according to directions, for a reasonable length of time or money paid for it will be cheerfully refunded.

BURNED BY HORSE THIEVES.

BRISTOL, Pa., February 11—A startling sequel to the burning of William Janney's big barn has developed. Yesterday a dark lantern was found in the ashes of the ruined stable, in which fifteen cows, four horses and two mules perished. The lantern was found where formerly one of the horses stood. It is believed by Mr. Janney that a thief was about to steal one of his horses when the animal kicked the lantern from his hand. The lamp must have broken and set fire to the straw. Knowing that the fire would alarm the people in that vicinity the thief fled, not daring to take a horse with him.

Mr. Janney says he never used a dark lantern in his stable and this usual instrument of thieves could not have gotten there in that way.

Recently so many horses have been stolen in this county that the citizens are about to form protective associations. Within three or four weeks ten horses have been stolen

A TOWN BADLY SCARED.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., February 11.—The inhabitants of the town of Westmont had the worst scare they had since the South Fork dam broke and carried to death and destruction through the valley of Conemaugh, Westmont is situated on the mountain side 5000 feet above the valley and its water supply was drawn from an artificial dam 100 feet higher up the mountain. Last night the dam broke and the sound of the rushing water down the mountain side awoke the sleeping villagers and sent them rushing in a panic into the streets of the town. Fortunately the volume of water in the dam was insufficient to do any harm and beyond the fright received by the village people and the flooding of a few cellars no damage was done.

BARTHOLOMEW'S SHOW.

The famous Bartholomew Equine Paradox came to Bellefonte today from Patton over the Beech Creek and Central railroad of Pennsylvania. It was about half past twelve o'clock when a special brought the train of two handsome cars up to the depot on Lamb street. A large crowd of men and boys were there to see the famous horses, trained to do everything but talk. And that they were beauties everyone who saw them must admit. It was the handsomest drove of horses ever seen in this place and, if they perform half as well as they look, they must be simply wonderful. And then there was the "clown trick mule," one of the smallest specimens of that species of animal one generally sees. There is not the least doubt but that the performance to-night will be almost marvelous. Every person, who can, should go and see the horses perform, they are certain to be pleased with what they will see.

ANOTHER BLOODY BATTLE.

BARBOURSVILLE, Ky., Feb. 13.—For two days there have been rumors of another bloody battle in Harlin county between the Turners and the Nolins, growing out of the recent killing by Dr. Will Nolin of two Turner boys who had attacked him.

There is no railroad to the scene of the shooting, and advices from there are meagre. A partial confirmation of the second bloody battle between the Turners and the Nolins of Harlan county, however, has been received here. One more name (a woman) was added to the list of killed, making four persons in all. They are: Dick Nolin, his brother, John, a man named Mullins, and a Mrs. Skidmore a widow near whose house it seems the encounter took place. Mrs. Skidmore was endeavoring to escape, but was overtaken by a stray bullet. This makes six people killed since the reopening of the old Turner-Howard feud from which sprang the Nolin-Turner shooting of last week.

W. W. Scott is now ready to do first class paper hanging and painting at greatly reduced rates. f8-1w

SENSATION IN A CHURCH.

Attempt to Assassinate a Baltimore Priest By His Assistant.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., February 11.—A sensation of the very largest kind was created this morning in St. Paul's Roman Catholic church, the first consecrated church in Brooklyn. It arose from an attack upon the pastor of the church, Rev. William J. Hill, at the very steps of the altar, by his assistant, Rev. Dr. Patrick V. McDonald. The trouble occurred at the 10 o'clock mass, when the church was crowded with worshippers. Father is about 53 years of age, and it was under his successful administration that the parish was freed from debt, and consecrated some years ago. Dr. McDonald came to the parish from Newark, N. J., and was originally from the diocese of Cleyne, Cork, Ireland. He is a highly educated man, has travelled widely, and it is said once or twice has been in ecclesiastical trouble. He had stated to Father Hill, it is said, that he had suffered from softening of the brain. He is of powerful physique, weighing about 250 pounds.

Mr. McDonald had been appointed by Pastor Hill to celebrate the mass at 10 o'clock, and also the high mass at 11. During the celebration of the former the worshippers were amazed to see Dr. McDonald approach Father Hill, who entered to assist at the celebration, and strike him a violent blow, felling the pastor to the floor. Before Father Hill could arise Dr. McDonald came to the chancel rail, and gesticulating wildly, exclaiming that there had been a conspiracy between Father Hill and Bishop McDonald to drive him from the diocese. He then turned and again assaulted Father Hill. Parishioners finally rushed forward and held him until the arrival of officers. He was subsequently taken to St. Peters hospital for treatment. It is said that he had been notified through the bishop's secretary that he would not be made a regular priest of the diocese and this fact weighed upon his mind. He has many friends who believe him to be insane.

ALL TRAINS ABANDONED.

OMAHA, NEB., Feb. 11.—Since 2 o'clock this morning a storm has raged generally in the Upper Missouri country, covering the entire territory between the river and the mountains. The wind is from the North, blowing a gale, accompained and packed hard. In this city the streets have been kept open and cars moving, but the movement of railroad trains has been greatly hampered. Trains are abandoned. Reports received from points in West at 7 o'clock says the snowfall is increasing. The wet snow of Friday covered all forage out of sight, and this latter fall will make it impossible for the cattle to obtain any food.

QUINCY, ILL., Feb. 11.—A severe blizzard is raging in this vicinity to-night. The thermometer is sinking steadily, and the snow and sleet is almost blinding.

A TALE OF CRUELTY.

SCRANTON, Pa., February 11.—Andrew Smith, a Polander, told a horrible tale of cruelty before Alderman DeLacy, of the Seventh ward, this city, to-day. Smith has brought suit against Charles Black, Anthony Pesco, Frank Parlilumas, Alex. Zernridge and Powell Carpaghe, charging them with seating him naked upon a red hot stove and holding him there despite his shrieks of agony as long as they could endure the odor of the burning flesh. Smith exhibits the scars of his burns, which are frightful. The men he accuses have a bad reputation and are suspected of being concerned in the assault on Joseph Mattulas, whose head was split open with an ax. All the accused were arrested to day and held for court.

ACCIDENT AT MILTON.

At Milton Friday afternoon an employe of the Godcharles nail mill was killed. While attempting to fasten a portion of loosened tin roof his blouse caught in the belting and he was drawn up and whirled around the shafting with lightning like rapidity. His head came in contact with the roof, dashing out his brains. His body was bruised, battered and mutilated almost beyond recognition. He was 42 years old and leaves a wife and six children.

"Certain hard words, made into pills,
Simply to swell the doctor bills,"

Are not what constitute Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. They are tiny, sugar-coated, purely vegetable pills, as pleasant as confectionary to the taste, and acting upon the stomach and liver gently but effectually, and as naturally as Nature herself. For sick headache, indigestion, biliousness, constipation, and all the resulting diseases, no laxative equal to them has ever been discovered.

DEATH OF A NOTED MAN.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 13.—James B. Scott, one of the most valued and public spirited citizens of Allegheny county, died at his home on Ridge avenue, Allegheny, at 3.30 o'clock this afternoon. The immediate cause of Mr. Scott's death was diabetes, from which he had been suffering for six months, but which only took a serious turn last Sunday afternoon. To his heroic services at Johnstown immediately following the flood of May 31, 1889, is probably due the present fatal illness of Mr. Scott. Mr. Scott's reputation as a successful business man and philanthropist is world wide.

GRANT'S BOOK.

General Grant's book, which he wrote while dying, to leave, as he said, something in the way of money to his widow and children, has already paid them $500,000. A member of the Grant family says that there is still a steady and very large demand for the book. "In a short time," he added, "a cheaper edition will be published—something that can be sold for $1 or a little less." If the cheaper edition meets with the sale that is expected, Mrs. Grant's profits may be nearer $1,000,000 than $500,000 within the next ten years. As it is the book is already the most profitable book, in a commercial sense, ever written.

A ST. VALENTINE'S PARTY.

How to Arrange a Unique Evening Entertainment.

A charming little party, says the New York Recorder, was given lately by some young women who were clever with their needle, brush and imagination, and it may be a help to some one else to describe it. This one was a hearts party, and the motive of the heart was carried out in every kind of an ingenious fashion.

Why not ask one's young friends to such an affair on St. Valentine's day, for instance?

The invitations were written on note-paper ornamented with the device of two hearts caught together with a ribbon, which little bit of decoration can be easily done at home.

When the guests arrived they were given tally-cards, each cut in the shape of a heart, and decorated with a tiny pen and ink sketch of cupid, etc. The counters were small red hearts, which may be bought at the same shops where one buys the familiar stars of progressive euchre.

After playing hearts for about two hours the prizes were awarded, and such pretty things as they were! A charming double photograph frame (made at home) in heart shape, both the outside and the openings for the pictures.

The covering of the frame was white, which made the lining more noticeable where it showed through the heart shaped cut, the lining being bright red silk, so that when the frame was opened the effect was like two abnormally large aces of hearts.

A silver framed heart pincushion was another prize, and, indeed, one need not seek far through the shops to find many a pretty arrangement of hearts in jewelry or fancy articles.

Booby prizes are apt to be a source of worriment, as one grows tired of Japanese dolls and such useless trifles, and longs in the words of the poet, "To make the punishment fit the crime." The three bright young women from whom these ideas are borrowed showed the originality here as well as in other points. They made for the male booby a pretty case holding a whisk broom. The two sides were cut in the form of hearts and caught together with ribbon bows, and among the cupids and hearts which adorned the front were these words:

"You need a broom 'tis very plain,
To sweep the cobwebs from your brain."

For the lady whose card showed the fewest counters there was a dainty little box of heart shaped candies bearing this inscription:

"By all wise things the wisest men do say,
She wins most hearts who has least luck at play."

The prevailing motive was carried even to the supper, when were served dainty little sandwiches cut in the desired shape by means of a heart shaped cutter, and chicken patties, whose shells had before baking gone through the same process as the sandwiches. Little heart shaped cakes were served with the ices and biscuit glace in heart forms. Hearts galore! A veritable St. Valentine's party.

—On Tuesday a gentleman from Howard came to Bellefonte to transact business, intending to return home by the 4.28 train. When he finished his business he was lost, completely lost. He started to hunt up the Pennsylvania railroad station and shortly found himself on Curtin street. It was some time before he could find himself, and when he did, and made his way to the depot the train was gone and the gentleman had to stay in town until the late evening train.

"I OWE MY LIFE TO YOU."

A Wilton, N. J., Girl's Experience With a Noted Massachusetts Woman.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

Life is never more precious than in the heyday of youth, when every dream is a promise, and every thought an inspiration.

It is natural that Miss Gertrude Sickler, a young lady who lives at Wilton, N.J., is grateful for the great boon of life.

She suffered terribly with suppressed and painful menstruations. The doctors could only prevent her from having fits each month by dosing her with morphine.

At last, when she was completely prostrated, her father got her a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which at once gave her relief.

That did what the doctors could not do. It cured her. She has no trouble now, and no dread of the coming month. "I owe my life to you," she writes to Mrs. Pinkham. "Oh, if other suffering women could try your valuable medicine they would bless you as I do."

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrups, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhœa and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

DR. G. C. OSGOOD, Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

DR. J. F. KINCHELOE, Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

A FIGHT FOR LIFE.

A Desperate Battle Between a Hunter and a Bear.

RIDGWAY, PA., Feb. 7—Jim Rhines and his brother Leopold left here a few days ago on a hunting expedition along Spring creek. The first day they secured 28 rabbits and 13 pheasants. The next day they devoted to a fruitless search for deer and then started homeward.

On the return to camp they separated and a half-hour later Jim heard a disturbance in a thicket but a few rods away. Hastening to the spot he found his dog dead and saw a large bear running down the hillside. Just then Leopold's dog arrived and took the trail of the bear. Jim followed and in a short time the dog had the bear treed. When Jim reached the spot he found bruin sitting on the limb of a tree about twelve feet from the ground.

Jim measured up the size of the bear and hesitated as to what course he should pursue, but finally decided to risk a shot. At the first fire the bear fell from his perch and rushed madly at the hunter. Rhines fired again, but did so hurriedly that the shot only made a flesh would and intensified the fury of the animal. At this point Rhines' only recourse was his knife. This he drew, and as the bear pounced upon him and seized him in a too fond embrace the hunter plied the knife repeatedly in the animal's side. At last Rhines lost his footing and fell with the bear upon him. He realized then the chances were all against him, but just at the moment Leopold, who had heard Jim's shots, came upon the scene and ended the combat by putting a 45- caliber bullet into the heart of the bear.

KEEP HIM WHERE HE IS.

PITTSBURG, February 7.—Attorney Friedman, who defended Anarchists Bauer and Nold, charged with complicity with Berkman in the attempt upon the life of Mr. Frick, admitted to-day that he had been in communication with Berkman's friends in New York and had visited Berkman several times in the penitentiary with reference to the movement in his behalf, and promised to do all he could for him. District Attorney Clarence Burleigh did not think there was any likelihood of Berkman being pardoned. If there was any attempt to free him the district attorney's office would have something to say in the matter. "There is no danger of Berkman Police O'Mara. "You may rest assured of being pardoned," said Superintendent of that. But if there is any attempt to free him the police department will do all it can to prevent it. Berkman is a dangerous criminal and is only safe when behind prison walls.

THE MANSFIELD RIOTERS.

PITTSBURGH, February 7.—The Mansfield rioters will be called for trial on next Monday. There will be fifty-eight of them tried together, and when they are arraigned before the bar there will be scarcely any room for lawyers, witnesses and jurors. The number of defendants will be larger than in any trial that ever occurred in Allegheny county, and the district attorney is figuring on all sorts of plans to get the case before the jury in an intelligible way. The chief trouble will be in identification of the prisoners, as a large number of them will resort to an alibi as a defense, and the separating of the innocent from the guilty may prove bothersome to the jury.

HELD ON SERIOUS CHARGES.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., February 7.—Zimri Dwiggins, president of the defunct Columbian bank, of Chicago, will be arrested in that city tomorrow morning upon a requisition from Governor Matthews, of Indiana, issued yesterday and honored by the governor of Illinois today. His original bank at Oxford, Ind., was of the "chain" in Indiana having its head in the Columbia at Chicago. The requisition was issued upon the request of the sheriff of Benton county, where the grand jury has just returned eighteen indictments against Dwiggins, charging him with forgery, embezzlement, defrauding depositors and stockholders, misappropriating funds and various other violations of the state banking laws.

PRINCETON.

In a recent address at Philadelphia President Patton, of Princeton College, said he did not wish to boast, but he was obliged to say that Princeton had no peer. Her faculty could not be duplicated. She produced splendid men; and in view of these things he thought Princeton should be encouraged. She needed money—$1,000,000 at least—and the major part of that sum should certainly come from Pennsylvania, which was more numerously represented there, and perhaps more efficiently also, than any other State. The sum of $100,000 was needed for a new recitation hall, $100,000 for a new dormitory, $200,000 for a gymnasium, $100,000 for additional professorships, and $100,000 more for fellowships. The total, $1,000,000, would not go any too far.

FARMER'S INSTITUTES.

On Monday Hon. John A. Woodward stated that the farmers' institutes in Centre county this year would be held at Rebersburg and Unionville. Each institute will continue for a period of two days and will be in charge of eminent instructors and lecturers upon topics of especial interest to farmers. The Rebersburg institute will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday, February 20 and 21. The Unionville institute will commence the following Thursday and Friday, February 22 and 23.

These institutes are under the general direction of Mr. Woodward, who is one of Centre county's most intelligent farmers and knows what will be the most profitable. The people living at these two points should take interest in the institutes and have them well attended.

OH, WHAT A TRUNK!

A trunk in the baggage room at the Philadelphia and Reading station this morning claimed the undivided attention of every person who happened in to see Baggagemaster Fred Myers.

It was just a common, exeryday, ordinary trunk, but the decorations on it's outer walls were something gorgeous. The trunk was wound around with strips of muslin which ended in a bow knot over the lock, and on the muslin were tied old rubber shoes and slippers in endless variety, tin baby rattles, collars, sprays of smilax, rubber nipples, china doll babies, a Derby hat, a straw hat and other articles too numerous to mention. In fact it looked like a regulgr Christmas tree, and brought out a broad smile whenever anyone gazed on it.

On one end was a placard bearing the inscription, "This is John's end," while on the other end there was a similar placard which informed people that "This is Bessie's end."

The trunk arrived at the Reading station from Lewisburg on the late train last night, and is said to be the property of a newly wedded couple on their wedding tour who stopped over in the city. Up to 11 o'clock this morning they hadn't mustered up sufficient courage to send for it. Some numerous Lewisburg friends of the couple no doubt did the decoration on the quiet, and the groom will probably go gunning for the jokers when he returns. —Williamsport Republican.

IN OTHER COUNTIES.

R. D. Showalter, a prominent citizen of Philipsburg, died last Monday afternoon.

The different school boards throughout the different districts in nearby counties are agitating the vaccination of pupils.

At Portage, early yesterday morning two burglars broke the front door of Peter Seymour's hotel and entered the barroom. They obtained several bottles of whisky, but no money or anything else of value.

Near Greensburg on Tuesday evening, an unknown colored man was struck by Johnstown accommodation east and instantly killed. He was aged about 35 and was fairly well dressed, but had no money.

James J. Brady, a Maryland hotel man, visiting friends at Scottdale, was held up by highwaymen on the road between Scottdale and Everson, early Tuesday morning and robbed of $200 and a valuable gold watch.

John P. Wagner, late private in Company K, Two Hundred and Second regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, died January 31, 1894, at the resident of his brother-in-law, Thomas Roles, in Clay township, Huntingdon county, aged about 49 years.

A LARGE BALLOT.

Certified copies of the official ballot for representative-at-large in congress were mailed by the state department Tuesday to the commissioners and sheriffs of the several counties of the state. The form is twenty-three inches in width and seventeen inches long and contains seven columns. In the first column appears the name of Galusha A. Grow as the candidate of the republican party; in the second, that of James Denton Hancock, of the democratic party; third, Henry F. Morrow, prohibition party; fourth, Arthur D. Markley, Pennsylvania democracy; fifth, Galusha A. Grow, protective tariff policy; sixth, Victor A. Lotier, people's party. The seventh column is blank.

In some districts of this county, where citizens tickets were nominated, the official ballot will be eight columns wide. This will make quite a large sheet. The printing of the ballots this year will be a big job as it will have to be done principally on cylinder presses.

INSTRUCTIONS TO CONSTABLES.

The attention of Constables and High Constables in boroughs is called to their particular duties in regard to elections. The law provides that High Constables shall make proclomation of Borough elections by at least six printed notices. This proclamation does not in any way interfere with the proclamation of the regular Constable. The High Constable gives proclamation of the election of Burgess, Councilmen and High Constable, while the regular Constable gives proclamation of the election of all the other officers. When the Judge and Inspectors of Election shall have completed their count of votes in Boroughs and made out the Certificates of Election, the Certificates of Burgess, Councilmen and High Constable shall be given to the High Constable for service, and the other Certificates shall be given to the regular Constable. The County pays for all services of the regular Constable, but is not liable for the services of the High Constable. The Borough pays for the services of the High Constable.

—A party of twenty-two young Masters and Misses', from Lamb street and vicinity, had a jolly time out on a sledding party Wednesday evening. The boys took up a collection and hired the large double sled of Mr. J. F. Strunk, then invited an equal number of young Misses and for two hours or more school books, mammas, etc., were forgotten and the growing generation made the most of the opportunity. On their return they were served with hot coffee and chocolate, sandwiches and cake at the residence of Mr. Hamilton Otto.

DIED OF HEART DISEASE.

A Representative In Congress Suddenly Breaths His Last.

WASHINGTON, February 9.—George W. Houk, representative in congress from the Third district of Ohio dropped dead at 4.30 o'clock this afternoon while visiting at 1627 Northwest Connecticut avenue. Judge Houk had arrived at this residence about 4 o'clock or a little thereafter and the statement made by Mrs. Christian who was in the parlor with the judge at the time, he was walking up and down the floor eating an apple. He had just reached the front window and was looking out upon the street when he sank upon a settee and slid to the floor helpless. Doctors were immediately summoned and when they arrived they applied an electrical apparatus and used all means known to the medical profession to resuscitate the stricken congressman, but without avail. Mr. Houk's wife arrived with a lady friend shortly after 5 o'clock.

Judge Houk was apparently in the best of health this morning. He visited the house of representatives this morning and attended a meeting of the interstate commerce committee, of which he was a prominent member. He was on the floor of the house during the session about an hour, and then left the capitol and repaired to his residence, at 1336 I street, N. W. He remained at his residence for some time and with his private secretary, Louis G. Olt, read over and revised a recent speech on the tariff, preparatory to having it printed in pamphlet form.

Judge Houk's body has been placed in the hands of Undertaker Gawler and Speaker Crisp notified.

Judge Houk was 69 years of age, having been born in Cumberland county, Pa., September 25, 1825. He removed, when 2 years of age, with his father, to Ohio and settled at Dayton, where he has resided ever since. He chose the law for a profession and formed a partnership with the Hon. Peter P. Lowe. In 1860 he was a delegate to the famous Charleston-Baltimore convention as a supporter of Douglass and from that time on was active in democratic politics. He was first elected to the Fifty-second congress and re-elected to the Fifty-third as a democrat, defeating in his last election Donnelly, republican, by 4,300 votes.

Judge Houk leaves a widow, one son and two daughters. All his children are married. Final arrangements have not been completed for the funeral, but the wishes of Mrs. Houk will, of course, be deferred to.

THE JUDICIARY ELECTIONS

Fourteen Common Pleas Judges are to be elected in Pennsylvania this year and early account of the fact is taken because some of the nominations will be made within the next two months. The districts and the names of the Judges whose terms expire are:—

Philadelphia—Robert N. Wilson, Rep.; Theodore F. Jenkins, Dem.
Northampton—Howard J. Reeder, Rep.
Lawrence—Aaron L. Hazen, Rep.
Delaware—Thomas J. Clayton, Rep.
Mercer—Samuel S. Mehard, Dem.
Beaver—John J. Wickham, Rep.
Indiana—Harry White, Rep.
Adams and Fulton—William McClean, Dem.
Wyoming and Sullivan—John A Sittser, Dem.
Lackawanna—R. W. Archibald, Rep.
Centre and Huntingdon—A. O. Furst, Rep.
Lebanon—F. E. Meily, Dem.

Any vacancies that many be created by death or resignation previous to the first of next August will also be filled by election next November. Two in the above list, Judge Jenkins, of this city, and Judge Meily, of Lebanon, are now serving by the appointment of the Governor, the former having been named to succeed Judge Fell, who has taken his place on the bench of the Supreme Court, and the latter to succeed Judge McPherson in the new Lebanon district, Judge McPherson remaining on the bench in Dauphin County.

In most instances those now on the bench will be renominated by their party conventions, and possibly several will have the indorsement of both parties. There are a few, however, who will not be renominated without a contest. This is apparent in the case of Judges Sadler, Hazen and Furst, each of whom has competitors in the field already. There has been a good deal of talk also of opposition to Judge Clayton, but so far no one has been found willing to avoid himself a candidate for the nomination, although Delaware County is full of Republicans who would warmly welcome the candidacy of some clean, high-minded and competent Republican for this nomination. What the final outcome of any of these contests may be it is now too early to say, but it is apparent there are to be several pretty lively struggles.—Philadelphia Press.

—It is said that during the trial of a petty case before the Justice on Friday some of the attorneys interested became somewhat ruffled, which almost caused a climax. If there is any person on this earth who should always keep a cool head, it is an attorney, for justice cannot be meted out in a passion.

On Monday, February 5, Frederick L. Schneider, aged 65 years, of Williamsport, blew out both his eyes with a ball from a 32-calibre revolver. He was despondent over business troubles. He was taken to the hospital where he died the next morning.

TOBACCO HABIT EASILY CURED.

A FEW Testimonials from persons who have been cured by the use of Hill's Tablets.

THE OHIO CHEMICAL CO.:
DEAR SIR:—I have been using your cure for tobacco habit, and found it would do what you claim for it. I used ten cents worth of the strongest chewing tobacco a day, and from one to five cigars; or I would smoke from ten to forty pipes of tobacco. Have chewed and smoked for twenty-five years, and two packages of your Tablets cured me so I have no desire for it.
B. M. JAYLORD, Leslie, Mich.

THE OHIO CHEMICAL CO.:—GENTLEMEN:—Some time ago I sent for $1.00 worth of your Tablets for Tobacco Habit. I received them all right and, although I was both a heavy smoker and chewer, they did the work in less than three days. I am cured.
Truly yours, MATHEW JOHNSON, P. O. Box 45. PITTSBURG, PA.

THE OHIO CHEMICAL CO.:—GENTLEMEN:—It gives me pleasure to speak a word of praise for your Tablets. My son was strongly addicted to the use of liquor, and through a friend, I was led to try your Tablets. He was a heavy and constant drinker, but after using your Tablets but three days he quit drinking and will not touch liquor of any kind. I have written letter to parents of boy you, in order to know the cure was permanent. Yours truly,
MRS. ELLEN MORRISON.
CINCINNATI, OHIO.

THE OHIO CHEMICAL CO:—GENTLEMEN:—Your Tablets have performed a miracle in my case. I have used morphine, hypodermically, for seven years, and have been cured by two packages of your Tablets, and without any effort on my part.

Cures Constipation

—How's this for groundhog weather? It isn't snow; but it's just as bad.

—Would it not be a good plan to have the school children in Bellefonte vaccinated?

—The ice that is now being harvested is more snow than ice, but it is the best to be had.

—The Lutheran social at the parsonage on Thursday night proved a success in every particular.

—Says a young lady today: Why don't some of the old bachelors in Bellefonte get married. If they can't find a wife let them advertise.

—There are a few persons in Bellefonte who just now are realizing to its fullest extent the truth of the biblical saying, "The way of the transgressor is hard."

—A small wreck occurred on the Bald Eagle railroad at Unionville on Wednesday. Several cars were derailed and traffic was delayed for a couple of hours.

—Alfred Stuart has withdrawn as a candidate for the office of High Constable and the name of William Bathurst will appear on the Republican ticket instead.

—The Tyrone dramatic company wants to come to Bellefonte and give us a rendition of the comedy "Engaged." Let her come; we always appreciate the work of good home talent.

—The Bell telephone monopoly expired on Tuesday, February 2nd, but prices in telephone rents are yet at the same high-water mark. A year hence may perhaps show some change.

—B. C. Achenbach has sold his bakery and confectionery establishment on Bishop street to Raymer & Tombe, of York, Pa. Mr. Achenbach will now put in all his time at his State College store.

—The Phonograph exhibition at the Evangelical church Friday night was listened to by a good sized audience who thoroughly enjoyed the treat and unanimously vote it to be wonderful indeed.

—And it has been left for Judge Bell, of Blair county, to discover that dogs are personal property, and the man who led him to make this discovery is now in the Hollidaysburg jail for shooting his neighbor's dog.

—On account of smallpox at Tyrone Forges the Pennsylvania railroad company has discontinued the sale of tickets to that point until further notice and no passenger trains will stop there until further advised.

—Secretary Cota, of the Y. M. C. A., wants everybody who has books belonging to that organization to be sure and return the same. There are a large number missing from the library, that it is desired to have returned.

—And now 'tis said, Mr. David Kelley is on the war path hunting for a certain newspaper scribbler in Bellefonte. If Dave is half as dangerous as he is ferocious looking some one had better keep on the shady side of the street.

—Will mysteries never cease? This morning as the writer was coming down High street A. A. Dale, Esq., called from the window of his law office that "the baby was all right this morning." Now, who would have thought it?

—According to the report of the Tyrone Board of Health there are three cases of smallpox and seven cases of varioloid at Tyrone Forges. Verily, it is high time something is done to prevent any further spread of this most contagious and dangerous disease.

—During this week Sheriff Condo, et al, plastered the election proclamation on barn doors and fences throughout the county. It may be a little cheaper but it is not half so satisfactory to the tax payers as an advertisement in the newspapers would have been.

A NARROW ESCAPE!

How it Happened.

The following remarkable event in a lady's life will interest the reader: "For a long time I had a terrible pain at my heart, which fluttered almost incessantly. I had no appetite and could not sleep. I would be compelled to sit up in bed and belch gas from my stomach until I thought every minute would be my last. There was a feeling of oppression about my heart, and I was afraid to draw a full breath. I couldn't sweep a room without sitting down and resting; but, thank God, by the help of New Heart Cure all that is past and I feel like another woman. Before using the New Heart Cure I had taken different so-called remedies and been treated by doctors without any benefit until I was both discouraged and disgusted. My husband bought me a bottle of Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, and am happy to say I never regretted it, as I now have a splendid appetite and sleep well. I weighed 125 pounds when I began taking the remedy, and now I weigh 130½. Its effect in my case has been truly marvelous. It far surpasses any other medicine I have ever taken or any benefit I ever received from physicians."—Mrs. Harry Starr, Pottsville, Pa., October 12, 1892.

Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is sold on a positive guarantee by all druggists, or by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles $5, express prepaid. This great discovery by an eminent specialist in heart disease, contains neither opiates nor dangerous drugs.

SMALLPOX AT TYRONE FORGES.

What the Medical Examiner of the Conemaugh Valley District Says.

Dr. W. E Mathews, medical inspector of the Conemaugh Valley district, having been requested by Dr. Benjamin Lee, secretary of the state board of health, to go to Tyrone and investigate concerning the report of smallpox there, reported in substance as follows:

"Tyrone is a borough of six thousand inhabitants, situate on the Pennsylvania railroad, northeastern border of Blair county. Tyrone Forges is situated on the Pennsylvania railroad one mile southeast from Tyrone borough, in Snyder township. In this little village of fifteen houses is where the smallpox is located. Just across the river, in direct communication by bridge from Tyrone Forges, is another little village of thirty houses, known as Ironsville. Also, in the opposite direction, across a little stream, is still another little village of fifteen houses. Both these places are in imminent danger of being infected, as well as Tyrone proper.

"In this little place of Tyrone Forges, some of the citizens of Tyrone borough met on the evening of the 6th of February 1894, and organized a board of health. This board of health at once appointed a health officer with instructions to allow no one from the infected district to enter the the borough and no one from the borough except physicians to go into the infected district. You see this little village of Tyrone Forges being out of the borough, the borough authorities have no power to quarantine the place, but I did this:

"By appointment I met at the Ward house Mr. H. L. Shally, superintendent of the Tyrone Iron company's works situated at Tyrone Forges, and he agreed to appoint one guardsman for either day or night, and Mr. A. G. Morris, who owns and manages two large stone quarries at Tyrone Forges, agreed to furnish another, in this way the place can, and is by this time, thoroughly quarantined. The men at Tyrone are bright, active and wide awake, and all they want is a little encouragement from the state authorities and this epidemic will soon be crushed out. Dr. J. M. Smith, the county poor physician, assured me all parties in Tyrone Forges have been properly vaccinated but perhaps one family, and concerning this particular family he was not certain. The board of health will insist on all parties in Tyrone borough being vaccinated at once.

"At present there are seven genuine cases of smallpox at Tyrone Forges, and five other cases that perhaps would be classed varioloid. The first fully developed case was that of Mrs Daniel Stillwell, and the history is that this disease was brought from Reading, both she and her husband being in Reading early in January. The first symptons in her case was on January 18, and by the 23d she had a fully developed case of smallpox; from this case the other cases in Tyrone Forges have developed. As yet no deaths have been reported."

HOUSE BREAKERS.

On Thursday night, about midnight, some person attempted to break into the house of Comrade William Jones, on East High street. As is known Mr. Jones stays at the bank during the night and there is only Mrs. Jones and her two daughters at home. They all heard a noise as if someone was trying a window and on Mrs. Jones looking out of an upstairs window, she saw a tall man going from one side of the house to the other and again trying a window. She called to him and, doubtless becoming frightened, the rascal made his escape through the darkness, without effecting an entrance.

If this kind of business is going to continue it is high time some steps are taken toward catching these night prowlers.

A NEW RULE.

The Board of Trustees of State college at a recent meeting held voted to abolish the second year preparatory course and hereafter only admit students to the preparatory department who are so far advanced as to enter the freshman class the succeeding year. They also reported favorably on a resolution presented by the faculty requiring the attendance of all engineering students at a Summer school continuing two weeks after commencement.

This addition to the practical work of the technical course consists of 100 hours of shop, field and laboratory instruction, divided according to the respective courses This new departure will go into effect in June, 1894. The present senior class is exempt from the new rule.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Following is the list of marriage licenses granted by the register of Centre county during the past week:

Henry Gault and Bessie Gingher, both of Bellefonte.

J. H. Yearick and Laura Johnson, both of Marion township.

Charles A. Dolan, of Marion township, and Mary C. McDowell, of Bald Eagle township, Clinton county.

J. M. Weaver, of Curtin township, and Sadie Wagner, of Liberty township.

—In its report of the rendition by local talent of Gilbert's comedy, "Engaged," in Tyrone on Tuesday night, the Herald says: The Cheviot Hill of W I Swoope, Esq., of Clearfield, was superbly ridiculous, precisely what the dramatist meant it to be; Mr. Swoope captured the house by his finished rendition of the part. Charles T. Noll, as Belvawney, was a good bad villain, so to speak, and Hal Mackey of Altoona, could not have been improved upon as Symperson. John P. Harris looked the Scotch peasant to perfection and rendered his part very acceptably.

VALENTINE'S ROLLING MILL TO START.

From Friday's Daily News.

At a meeting of the officials of the Valentine Iron Company held on Wednesday it was decided to start work on full time in their rolling mill, next Monday morning, unless something unforseen occurs to prevent. This is certainly a move in the right direction and will be good news to the many idle men in and around Bellefonte. Not that the rolling mill of itself will employ such a large number, but it's resumption is one step toward the resumption of this company's entire plant, which, it is hoped and believed, will now be only a question of a brief time.

And then if the Bellefonte Furnace company should follow suit, the Lamokin car works and Thomas' stoneware works locate here Bellefonte will certainly enjoy a boom the likes of which we have not had for some time and which we trust will be but the beginning of a wonderful growth in manufacturing industries.

THAT SLEDDING PARTY.

It was a merry party of young people that was driven by liveryman Jesse Cox up Buffalo Run valley on Tuesday evening to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reeser, opposite Hunter's Park, and it was a merry time the party had after they arrived there. With the merry dances and games, the hospitality of the host and hostess, and the very elegant refreshments, it is not to be wondered at that the party voted Mr. and Mrs. Reeser royal entertainers, and forgot to start home until the wee sma' hours of the morning. The names of those in the party are Misses Mary Murray, Lizzie Nolan, Nellie Rodgers, Lizzie and Martha Youlton, Rachael Scanlon, Agnes Haley, Virgie Bilger, Grace Dubbs, Ida Cole, Blanche Long, Anna Bartley, Miss Ott, Miss Miller and her brother, of Snow Shoe; and Messrs. Roland Wyle, George Williams, Warner Barr, George Doll, Woods Sebring, John Dubbs, Jr., Vestra Culveyhouse, Miles Osmer, Clyde Smith, Emanuel Markle, Harry Longwell and E. Hastings. Mr. James Kane went along as musician.

DIED AT HOWARD.

Word was received in this place of the death of Mrs. Susan Pletcher, wife of Mr. Michael Pletcher, who died at her home one mile east of Howard, last Thursday about 7 o'clock, her death being caused by a complication of diseases. Mrs. Pletcher, had been sick for about twenty-one years, and in all that time she very rarely got outside of the house. She was aged 72 years, 9 months and 5 days. There is left to mourn her death a husband, who is now past 77 years of age, and five sons, namely, David W., Henry S., Nathaniel G., Christian H. and J. Linn all married and with families growing up around them. She is also survived by twenty-seven grandchildren. Mrs. Pletcher was a daughter of Mr. Jacob Holter, who died some thirty years ago.

GAULT—GINGHER.

Quite a nice little home wedding occurred at the home of Mrs. Arvilla Gingher, on East Lamb street, Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock. It was the occasion of the marriage of her oldest daughter, Miss Bessie E. Gingher to Mr. Henry P. Gault, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gault, of this place. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H. Blackburn, of the United Brethren church. The bride was becomingly arrayed and looked extremely pretty, while the groom looked every inch the gentleman in the customary suit of black. Following the ceremony and congratulations, an elegant wedding supper was served. The many friends of both parties tender their heartiest congratulations.

DEATH OF MRS. M'MULLEN.

Mrs. McMullen, wife of Mr. James McMullen, died at her home in Milesburg, Wednesday morning after an illness extending through a number of years. Deceased was aged about 45 years and leaves a husband and one daughter to mourn their less. Mrs. McMullen was a most estimable christian lady and her death will be mourned by a large circle of friends. She was a most active member of Relief Corps, No. 3, connected with George L. Potter Post, 261.

MRS. CRIDER ENTERTAINS.

The most important society event that has taken place within a fortnight was a dinner given by Mrs. F. W. Crider, at her pleasant home on Linn street Thursday evening to her lady acquaintances. All in all thirty-five plates were laid and there were just enough. The dinner was served promptly at 6 o'clock and the menu contained some of the rarest and choicest delicacies of the season.

BADLY INJURED.

Last Saturday, while at work in A. G. Morris' limestone quarries, on the pike, Mr. William Johnston, of Milesburg was badly injured by the fall of a large stone which hit him on the head. He was taken to his home and is now seriously ill from the effects of his injury, in connection with pleuratic pneumonia.

SENATOR MEEK'S CHANCES.

Those who are in a position to know state that J. Henry Cochran, of Williamsport, will receive the appointment of collector of customs at Philadelphia, and that Senator P. Gray Meek, of Bellefonte, will be made surveyor of the port.

BARTHOLOMEW'S CARS

The Train in Which the Equine Paradox Travels the Country.

The two special cars belonging to Bartholomew's Equine Paradox present a far different appearance today than when they first reached this city. On their arrival they were dingy and weather beaten from being side-tracked and exposed to the elements for two years. Naturally the appearance was not one that was very creditable to the show, and so, Manager James Albert employed two experienced car painters, Messrs. Shipps and Brooks, of the Pennsylvania shops, and during the seven weeks they have been engaged in the work they have made the old new. The cars now present an appearance that equals that of any private car ever seen in this city. Messrs. Shipps and Brooks for a number of years were employed at the Pullman works and are considered the best car decorators in the country. Both Mr. Albert and Mr. Bartholomew are highly pleased with their work.

The car which will be occupied by Prof. Bartholomew and Manager Albert is a model in every way, and almost as comfortable as one's own home, including as it does a handsomely furnished reception room, dining room, ample sleeping apartments for at least four people in addition to accommodations for nine musicians; a complete kitchen, bath and toilet room and office. The car is heated either by steam from the locomotive or when not traveling by a steam heater which occupies one end. The furnishings throughout are elaborate to a degree and the visitor almost wishes it was his lot to traverse the country amid such luxury. The car originally cost $10,000.

The car in which the horses are transported is a model stable, everything needed for the comfort of the knowing animals is provided. Aside from ample room for the twenty-four horses, there is also a state room for the attendants. This car cost in the neighborhood of $8,000. With the improvements that have recently been put upon the two cars their combined value amounts to at least $22,000.

FAILURE AT CENTRE HALL.

The usual quiet and peaceable citizens of the borough of Centre Hall were thrown into a great state of excitement on Thursday when it was announced that William Wolf, who was generally considered in good financial standing, had failed, and dragged down with him his son Witmer Wolf, of the large mercantile firm of Wolf & Crawford. Several years ago William Wolf was interested in this mercantile establishment which was then conducted under the firm name of Wm. Wolf & Son. On his retirement he was succeeded by Frank Crawford who purchased a one-third interest and the firm name was changed to Wolf & Crawford.

On his retirement William Wolf conducted various businesses and Witmer endorsed for him at times when he needed money. Consequently the failure of William also affects Witmer. The total liabilities will aggregate near $20,000 and the assets, which include a two-third interest in the store and some little real estate, it is not believed will amount to over five thousand dollars all told. Sheriff Condo made a levy of the estate on Thursday and sale will be made sometime next week.

—The newspaper proprietor labors at a disadvantage in time of money stringency as compared with a manufacturer. The latter can shut down his mill, but the newspaper publisher never finds a time when he can shut down his plant and lay off his employes until he has to do so for good. The newspaper must be turned out regularly and the expense continue right on in dull times as when the business is booming. Any retrenchment of the reading matter will very soon bring a protest from subscribers, yet many of these subscribers fail to think of paying their bills.

DEATH OF JOHN F. HARRISON.

On Friday about noon Mr. John F. Harrison, Sr., died at his home near Pleasant Gap, at the advanced age of 67 years. His death was the result of a complication of diseases from which Mr. Harrison has been suffering for a number of years. There is left to mourn their loss a wife and a family of grown up children, one of whom is Prof. Harrison, of the Bellefonte schools. The funeral occurred on Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

EPPS'S COCOA.
BREAKFAST—SUPPER.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps provided for our breakfast and supper a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette. Made simply with boiling water or milk. Non-pull-out is an arbitrary word used to designate the only bow (ring) which cannot be pulled off the watch.

Here's the idea

The bow has a groove on each end. A collar runs down inside the pendant (stem) and fits into the grooves, firmly locking the bow to the pendant, so that it cannot be pulled or twisted off.

It positively prevents the loss of the watch by theft, and avoids injury to it from dropping.

IT CAN ONLY BE HAD with Jas. Boss Filled or other watch cases bearing this trade mark—

All watch dealers sell them without extra cost.

A watch case opener will be sent free to any one by the manufacturers.

Local Department.

—Go to Bartholomew's horse show this evening.

—If this snow stays with us it will be a harvast for the liverymen.

—We are indebted to the Williamsport Grit for the cuts used in to-day's paper.

—One hundred and forty-three applications for license have been filed in Lycoming county.

—The fourth annual tournament of indoor sports of the State College Athletic Association will be held on Friday evening, the 26th in the College armory.

—Rev. W. H. Blackburn and wife are rejoicing over the arrival of a new daughter in their household, and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Mott are just as happy over a young son.

—Alfred Irvin, a son of Daniel Irvin the hardware man, is ill with billious fever at his rooms in Crider's Exchange. Al. is one of the brightest boys in the Bellefonte High school.

—The snow was a long time coming but, now that we got it, there is sufficient to make the best kind of sleighing, and all who can are taking advantage of the opportunity.

—A wee mite of a stranger has come to brighten the home of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Zimmerman, of Milesburg. It is a boy and both the babe and its mother are doing splendid.

—On Sunday the fires were lighted in Valentine & Co's rolling mill and this morning it is in full operation. It is now rumored that the furnace may be blown in by the first of March.

—On Friday last Mr. Andrew J. Lytle, of State College, was thrown from a sled and, alighting on his head on the frozen ground, received serious and painful, though not fatal injuries.

—On Monday night a drunken tramp fell against the window of Galbraith's jewelry store, breaking one of the large glasses. He was arrested and confined in the lockup until this morning.

Miss Lettie Hartman recently received from friends in Broad Lane, N. J., a French poodle dog by the name of Hoke, which is proving a very intelligent little animal, though but four weeks old.

—Now let everybody get down to work and clean off their pavements before ice forms thereon. If the work is done now it can be done right, but once ice forms then it is almost an impossibility to get it off.

—The Evangelical congregation will hold an oyster, ice cream, cake, etc., supper in the Sunday school room of their church on Willowbank street Friday and Saturday evenings of this week. Everybody is invited.

—Col. William Shortlidge, of the firm of McCalmont & Co., was last week re-elected President of the Retail Implement Dealers' Association of Pennsylvania. Mr. Shortlidge has held this position in the Association ever since its organization several years ago.

—Alexander Scott, father of Mrs. John P. Harris, died at his home in Freeport, Armstrong county, on Saturday evening, February 10th, at the advanced age of 82 years. His illness was of about four weeks duration. The funeral occurred Monday afternoon.

—The State College Freshmen class will banquet at the Fallon House, Lock Haven, Wednesday evening, the 21st, and the Seniors on the 23rd. The College students seem to be "stuck" on Lock Haven. They certainly could get just as good entertainment in Bellefonte.

—Altoona has caught the smallpox scare and the school board has passed a resolution making it compulsory on all school children to be vaccinated. Reports from the infected district at Tyrone Forges give no new cases, but little improvement in the old.

—The Sunday-school class of Miss Ida Gerberich will this evening give a peanut sociable at the residence of Mr. C. T. Gerberich on Thomas street. This will be something new and novel in Bellefonte and there should be a large attendance. Everybody is invited to attend.

—The civil service examination of applicants for clerks and letter carriers in the Bellefonte postoffice took place last Saturday. There were six applicants. The papers have been sent on to the Department and the several persons will not know their doom for several weeks to come.

—The small boy made money Tuesday shoveling snow from the sidewalks. One little boy in Bellefonte, aged but ten years, was up at four o'clock and managed to clean ten or a dozen pavements. It was ten cents for as many minutes' work, but then the boys don't often get such snaps.

—Harry Markle, son of George Markle, died Sunday morning at the home of his parents, near Roopsburg. He was aged about twenty-four years and was an upright, conscientious young man. The funeral occurred this morning at 9 o'clock, interment being made in the Union cemetery.

AT THE HIGH SCHOOL.

Monday Afternoon's Exercises of More than the Usual Interest.

The usual Monday afternoon rhetorical exercises at the High School began with a song entitled, "Travelling the Highway to Learning," rendered with a high degree of perfection by the entire school. The following is the program of literary exercises in full:

Declamation, Harry Gentzel.
Essay, "Snow," Charles Case.
Declamation, Lee Larimer.
Essay, "History," Joseph Runkle.
Declamation, Morton Smith.
Essay, "Flowers," Annie Bartley.
" "Contentment," Stella Brosuis.
" "China ware," Alice Ishler.
Recitation, Myra Carson.
Essay, "Tea," Lizzie Allen.
" "Skating," Gregg Curtin.
" "Business," Daniel Keller.
Recitation, Bessie Bell.
Essay, "Education," Mamie Bell.
" "Cyrus and Crœsus," Katie Benner.
Recitation, Lyda Benner.
Recitation, Freda Baum.
" Florence Cleaver.
Essay, "Chinese wall, "Chas. McClure.
Recitation, Fannie Elmore.
Essay, "Chinese wall," Louisa Crissman.
Recitation, Hattie Stott.
Essay, "Chinese wall," Ed. McGarvey.
Recitation, Della Goodfellow,
" Tessie Lyon.
Recitation, Nellie Anderson.

A song, "The Banner of Victory," by the school. This closed the usual exercises, which were followed with the presentation of two handsome pictures, one of our country's "father," George Washington, and the other of its "brother and preserver," Abraham Lincoln. Before the pesentation address was made the school repeated the song, "Travelling the high road to learning," Prof. Ammerman manipulating the keys of the piano and doing it to perfection.

W. E. Gray, Esq., then arose and made the presentation address of the pictures in the name of the donor, Mr. John P. Harris which he did in a short but well-worded speech. He allowed his thoughts to wonder back to his school days and spoke of the school decoration of thirty years ago as compared with that of to-day. Mr. Gray briefly referred to the lives and history of the immortal Washington and Lincoln, and also referred to our eminent townsman, ex-Governor A. G. Curtin as being a most loyal supporter of the public school.

Mr. Gray's address was responded to by Masters Rufus Strohm and Paul Fortney. D. F. Fortney, Esq., President of the Bellefonte School Board, was present and delivered one of his usual characteristic and forcible addresses.

The fact that Monday was Lincoln's birthday anniversary added greatly to the impressiveness of the occasion.

THE SMALLPOX SITUATION.

No new cases of smallpox have been reported from the infected district at Tyrone Forges to-day, and under the care of Dr. F. K. Fickes, the twelve persons afflicted, mostly with varioloid, are convalescing.

Of the twelve cases at Tyrone Forges six are smallpox and six varioloid. No new case has been reported since Thursday, and with the precautions now being taken it is reasonable to expect there will be no further spread of the disease.

P. F. Bridenbaugh, steward of the Blair county poor house, was in town on Saturday by direction of the board of directors of the poor, to provide measures for the relief of the penniless in the smallpox district at Tyrone Forges, who are in destitute circumstances. He met the members of the board of health and the deputies appointed by the state board of health at the office of W. F. Taylor, Esq., where arrangements were made to assist all families in indigent circumstances and the appointment of suitable nurses for all those requiring the same. Dr. J. M. Smith, the district physician, was instructed to forthwith vaccinate the members of all families residing at Ironsville, Nealmont and contiguous territory outside the borough limits, at the expense of the board of poor directors.

No deaths have as yet occurred and it is the general opinion that the crisis has been passed. The original victim is up and is now attending to her household duties, but nevertheless a strict quarantine is being maintained. No case has yet developed in our town, a strict surveilance being kept over all who inhabit the infected section. Their wants are being supplied by the guardsman, Harry M. Wands, and all railroad matter and provisions are delivered to them from his conveyance on the road ways of the quarantined streets to those who have been authorized to receive them.

"THE BRIGHT SIDE OF LIBBY."

On Sunday the methodist congregation discussed the approaching visit of Chaplain C. C. McCabe to this place, and the consequent treat that will be in store for the people of Bellefonte to hear him. Mr. McCabe will be here on the 3rd prox., and that evening will lecture in the church on "The Bright Side of Libby." This is said to be one of the Chaplain's most popular lectures. The price of admission has been fixed at 50 cents for the main body of the church and 35 cents for the gallery. The church should be crowded to its utmost capacity.

—On Friday Sheriff Condo posted the election proclamations in this borough. Of the five the writer saw that evening four of them were blown and torn down inside of twenty four hours. This should be proof conclusive that such advertising, although it may be a little cheaper, is not half so satisfactory as an announcement in the newspapers would have been.

A NEW LOCATION.

R. S. Schadd & Brother, steam fitters and plumbers, have leased for three years the room on the northeast corner of the diamond next to Achenbach's jewelry store, now occupied by William Hart as a sample room, and will have the same fixed up as a store room, while a workshop will be arranged in the basement. To do this it will be necessary to put down a pair of steps from the pavement on Allegheny street.

We are truly glad to see this evidence of prosperity in these young men. It has only been a couple of years since they started out on their own hook in the shop connected with the gas works, and by good work, strict attention to business and reasonable charges, they have built up a business equal to the best in Bellefonte and their constantly increasing trade demands more commodious quarters. For this reason the above location has been selected and the firm will move their establishment there on or about the 1st of April. In the meantime everything will be put in proper shape and when once established they will have a supply store and workshop exceeded by none in the town.

HIS MEMORY TO BE HONORED.

Next Sunday, Feb. 18, is set apart by the Methodist people of the Warriorsmark charge for the unveiling of a memorial cross in honor of their departed pastor, Rev. J. W. Ely, who died during last August.

It bids fair to be a great day in the history of that chuch, and special preparations are being made for the occasion. Rev. H H Henry, of Birmingham, has been solicited to read a short sermon of the departed preacher on "Paul's Glorying in the Cross." All the different denominations and Sunday schools have been invited to take part in the services. The fact that Rev. Mr. Ely was held in very high esteem by a large number of people of the different churches insures a large attendance on this occasion. A cordial invitation is extended to everybody to be present.

P. O. S. OF A.

Members of the P. O. S. of A. of this city will be interested in the reports of the various camps that have just been received at state camp headquarters. They show the order to be in a very prosperous condition. The following camps report their valuation at over $10.000. Camp No. 89. of Reading, now leads all other camps in the state in financial value, having 415 members and a valuation of $19,644,86; camp 254, of Lebanon, leads all others in membership and is second in financial value, having 519 members and $19,468,72; camp 49, Pinegrove reports 204 members and $14,047,62; camp 65, Lebanon, 235 members and $15,070; camp 47, Schuylkill Haven, 189 members and $10,189,86; camp 64, Myerstown, 173 members and $10,628,68.

A GOOD SIZED PLANT.

The following information will prove interesting to our readers concerning the electrical department of the State Reformatory at Huntingdon: There are 1200 incandescent lights of 10 and 16 candle power each; from 500 to 1000 are burning during the entire night. There are 31 arc lights which burn until midnight and 26 arc kept burning all night; each arc light contains 2000 candle power. The capacity of the entire plant is as follows: 60 arc lamps, and 1200 incandescent lamps. Two engines of 80 horse power each are used for running of the same.

HALLER CAPTURED.

Charles Haller, the man who escaped from the Clearfield jail Saturday, was captured yesterday at New Millport. The sheriff had offered $100 reward for his capture. Haller nearly killed his wife with a hatchet and last week was sentenced to over five years' imprisonment for the crime. A man named Barlinger, who made his escape with Haller was also captured.

THE SNOW.

Verily, we are getting our winter's snow now in truth and reality. Commencing as it did Monday morning there was no let up in it until this forenoon and then the snow measured about one foot in depth. Reports from all over this and adjoining states detail a heavy fall of snow everywhere, and now there is a likelihood of the mercury falling and a spell of cold weather to follow.

MEMORIAL SERVICE.

A memorial service, in honor of all soldiers who have died since the last memorial service, will be held in Gregg Post room, on Sunday afternoon, February 25th, at 3.45 o'clock. Hon. John G Love will deliver the memorial address. An invitation is extended to the families of all deceased soldiers, as well as to all others to be present on this occasion.

—The Magnet, refers with regret to it's inability to publish a full list of the men who have signed the various applications for license in Centre county, and bewails the fact that Prothonotary Smith was not willing to shoulder the "responsibility" of allowing the editor carte blanche to examine all papers in full, copy what he desired, etc., but in this respect Mr. Smith simply followed the wishes of the attorneys.

ONIONS FOR CROUP.

How a Fatal Termination of the Disease May be Averted.

The season when croup stalks abroad in the land and young mothers get their first gray hairs is here. The gray hairs could often be avoided and the dreaded infantile disease warded off by a little common sense.

In the first place, babies should be properly dressed at all times. They should not be so tightly bandaged that it is impossible for them to breathe properly or for their skin to throw off waste material easily. They should be as warmly and lightly clad as possible always. At night they should wear some sort of woolen covering which they could not kick off or roll into a tight wad about their necks.

Every day they should be taken out for a few minutes, unless there is a blizzard blowing. About noon is the best time for their airing. On mild summer days they may be trundled in their carriage, but on days when the atmosphere is not balmy they should be held in their mothers' or nurses' arms. This is a much warmer place for them, and it also gives the person holding them a chance to know when they are beginning to lose the heat they brought out from indoors with them.

If, in spite of sensible dressing and sensible exposure to the elements, the croup symptoms appear, the first step is to send for the doctor. If he lives at several hours' distance, here are a few old-fashioned remedies, any one of which may be applied until he comes.

At the first indication of croup or any sort of cold, slice raw onions, sprinkle with granulated sugar and let them stand until stand until the juice is extracted. This process may be hastened by heating for a few minutes. Pour off the juice and give a teaspoonful every hour, or oftener if the case is severe.

Another cure for croup is to rub the throat and chest until they are red with a mixture consisting of a half a teaspoonful each of camphor and turpentine and a teaspoonful each of coal oil and sweet oil. Wet a warm flannel with this and apply it to the throat and chest, watching carefully to remove it when they are reddened. This outward irritation tends to prevent croup.

Another home made croup medicine is composed of roasted onions, mashed and laid on a folded napkin, and goose oil, or even lard, poured on them. This should be applied as hot as it can be borne to the throat and upper part of chest and to the feet and hands. Another way of preparing this malodorous but effective remedy is to slice and boil the onions until almost dry, and then add the grease and cook them in that until brown.

MEEK GETS IT.

On Tuesday afternoon President Cleveland sent to the Senate for confirmation the name of our eminent townsman, Senator P. Gray Meek, editor of the Democratic Watchman, as surveyor of customs for the port of Philadelphia. Although it has all along been believed that Mr. Meek would be given this appointment yet, as nothing is certain in political life until the requisite amount of "red tape" has been gone through with, it must now be a pleasant relief to Mr. Meek, his family and friends to know of his success.

The appointment is a deserved one, as it would be hard to find in the State of Pennsylvania a more steadfast and consistent democrat, one who has labored so unceasingly for the welfare of his party, than just Mr. Meek. And never once, in the long line of his political career has he swerved from the path of straightout, red hot democracy. And now he has won his reward. He has received the best appointment that ever fell to the lot of a Centre countian, (except Ex.Governor Curtin). The officer of surveyor of customs draws a regular salary of five thousand dollars a year, and then there are always perquisites connected with such an office which amount to almost as much as the regular salary. Mr. Meek will succeed John J. Ridgway, Esq., the present republican official.

GO TO CALIFORNIA.

This afternoon, at 5.12 o'clock, Col. W. Fred Reynolds and wife, his brother Mr. Samuel Reynolds and wife, of Lancaster, and his sister and husband, Col. Frank Harris and wife, of Woonsocket, Rhode Island, will depart in the special pullman car "Cleopatra," over the Pennsylvania railroad for a trip to California. They will go from here direct to Denver, Colorado, over the Union Pacific railroad; thence to Salt Lake City, Utah, and from there to San Francisco, California, where they will take in the beauties of the mid-winter fair. They will be absent about 3 weeks and on the return trip will come by way of the famous Southern Pacific road.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Following is the list of marriage licenses granted by the register of Centre county during the past week:

Hiram Lee, of Spring township, and Mary A. Decker, of Potter township.

Jessie Snyder and Sarah A. Rupp, both of Penn Hall.

VISITED STATE COLLEGE.

Messrs. Abrahn Huber, J. B. Reist, M. B. Leaman, M. S. Hess, H. R. Erb, I. G. Erb, J. S. Galt, J. R. Bricker, D. C. Hershey, John Gingrich and Elmer Gingrich, a committee from the Lancaster County Tobacco Growers' Association, visited State College on Tuesday to inspect the workings of that institution. It is needless to say they were all well pleased with what they saw.

PERSONAL PENCILINGS.

Mr. H. E. Yerger spent Monday in Altoona.

Ex-Sheriff R. K. Wilson was a Thursday visitor in Bellefonte.

Miss Carrie Noll is visiting her friend, Miss Cora Ewing, in Tyrone.

Mrs. J. Fearon Mann is enjoying a visit of her sister from Lewistown.

Miss Alice Gueiswhite has been confined to her bed several days with the grip.

Rev. J. A. Woodcock transacted business and greeted friends in Altoona on Thursday.

'Squire J. M. Thompson is reported very low with consumption at his home at State College.

Harry Kaup came down from Altoona this morning and will visit friends in this place and Howard.

John G. Love, Esq., and J. Linn Harris were two of Bellefonte's citizens who spent Tuesday in Lock Haven.

Mrs. Jacob Manaval, of Salladasburg, Lycoming county, is visiting her brother, Mr. Morris Cowdrick, on East Linn street.

Mr. John Shadle, who drives one of Mr. E. K. Rhoades' teams, has been confined to his home several days with a sprained back.

Miss Lizzie, the daughter of Sheriff Condo, is ill with catarrh of the stomach. It is to be hoped she may speedily recover.

Dr. George F. Harris, after a brief visit with friends in Ithica, N. Y., has returned home and again taken charge of his large medical practice.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schreyer are rejoicing over the arrival of a handsome girl baby at their home, which made its appearance on Friday.

Mr. Joseph Rhoads, of Plainfield, N. J., is visiting his family on Linn street, this place. Joseph is the second son of Ex-Judge Daniel Rhoads, deceased.

Miss Grace McBride returned Friday evening from Chambersburg, where she had been visiting her sister, Miss Annie, who is a student at Wilson College.

Mr. Templeton Cruse is on the sick list. It was at first feared he was stricken with typhoid fever, but the doctor on Wednesday said it was only a serious attack of grip.

The many friends of Miss Marion Milliken in this place will be gratified to learn that her health is rapidly improving since her change of residence to Plainfield, New Jersey.

Miss Emily Harris departed Monday morning for Freeport to attend the funeral of her grandfather, Mr. Alexander Scott, who was buried in that place Monday afternoon.

On Saturday Senator P. Gray Meek received a telegram from Washington which was very encouraging news regarding his appointment as surveyor of the port of Philadelphia.

Mrs. S. W. Barr, of Tyrone, passed through Bellefonte on Monday on her way to Potter's Mills, where she was called by the sudden and serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Mary A. Stover.

L. Lonsbury, engineer of local freight on the Central railroad, with his wife, are now stopping at the Garman House until they can find a suitable house to locate in. They come here from Corning, N. Y.

Miss Julia, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William McClellan on East Lamb street, is seriously ill with pneumonia. The McGarvey children are recovering after an illness of ten days' duration.

Prof. D. O. Etters, principal of the Bellefonte schools, was out walking through the snow to-day as unconcerned as could be and with a remarkably broad smile on his face. It was a little hard at first to understand the reason but when we learned that on Saturday night his wife presented him with a handsome new daughter all was made as plain as day. Congratulations.

—Constable Simler, of Philipsburg, this morning brought to Bellefonte and lodged in jail James, Charles and Thomas Meyers, the three brothers who were arrested in that place last Friday for committing a number of robberies in Philipsburg and vicinity. The evidence against them was conclusive. John Halla and Henry Smith, who were also arrested, were discharged because of lack of evidence against them.

—Mr. Charles Smith, insurance agent in this place, this morning received a draft for five hundred and nineteen dollars and twenty-six cents from the American Insurance Company, of Pitteburg, Pa., to be paid to the estate of James Williams, of Huston township, being the insurance on a barn recently destroyed by fire.

THE TRAMP.

This knight of the road is monarch of all he surveys. He owes no place the pleasure of his presence and owns no place as his home. He is from here, there and everywhere, and can always be found at the same time in all the places. He is a terror to children and timid ladies, while even some men have a wholesome dread of this nomad's visits. They are a peculiar set within themselves, being at the same time dependent and enormously independent. They are posessed of the regulation "government mule cheek," abundance of moral suasion, which at times is excelled by their very immoral and even profane persuasion. All this and anything else to gain their point and secure the desired object is their motto and golden rule. But there are times when even the above availeth not. Such was the case at a certain home in the North ward on Tuesday afternoon.

One of the gentry who had spent Monday night in the lockup visited a house and asked for something to eat. Now, as it just happened, the lady of the house had nothing whatever prepared that she could give him, and this she candidly told him. Then said the tramp, "have you got any coffee for us?" "No," replied the lady, "I have no coffee for us." By this time the tramp was pretty badly riled and the lady ditto. The knight of the road then began to quote "cuss words" with the volubility of a finished orator or a United States Senator. It took but a little of this to go a great ways with the lady who, not the least alarmed, said as calmly as she could, "if you just stand still I'll maul you with the poker," and suiting her action to her words she went for that weapon. But the tramp didn't want any of that "for us," and the manner in which he beat a retreat was more hasty than eloquent. The lady followed him to the gate, then sent for a police officer, but the tramp did not stop in that neighborhood and, for ought is known, may yet be running. A few more ladies like the above might greatly assist in stamping out the tramp nuisance.

ON WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY.

The Entertainment committee of Gregg Post, No. 95, assisted by many ladies of the town, are arranging a very fine program for Thursday of next week, February 22nd, (Washington's birthday.) The Post rooms will be open from early in the forenoon until late in the evening. A good turkey dinner and supper will be served and refreshments, etc., will be sold during the entire day. As an attraction Meyers' Orchestra has been engaged and will be at the rooms during the day making merry with the delightful music it alone can render. This will be a rare treat all around and everybody should make their calculations to "board" at the Post rooms on that day.

—Says the Tyrone correspondent of the Altoona Tribune:—Three ladies arrived here from the Bald Eagle Valley branch road on Friday noon, with the purpose of spending a few days with friends at Tyrone Forges. They were informed that no trains stopped at the station and the reason why. They beat a hasty retreat to their home on the afternoon branch train the same day.

—The meeting held under the auspices of the Bellefonte Temperance Club in the W. C. T. U. rooms Sunday afternoon was a success in every particular. Both rooms were crowded and many had to stand in the hallway. A number of eloquent speeches were made and the music as rendered by Meyer's Orchestra, the Prohibition quartette and others, was greatly appreciated.
